Preface

In 1913 the Pancoast Family was featured in an article by Frank Willing Leach in his series on Old Philadelphia Families that ran in the Philadelphia North American. Although it covered only the Philadelphia branches and was far from complete on them, it remained until now, the best reference in print about the Pancoasts.

Presented here is what has been learned about the first seven generations of the descendants of John Pancoast. An English Quaker, he founded the Pancoast family in America and settled in Burlington County, West New Jersey, as one of the Proprietors of the Province.

Here his two sons, William and Joseph, married sisters and founded families from whom are descended all those of the Pancoast name.

In my self-appointed task to trace the lines of all Pancoasts back to this family I have been in a large measure successful. I feel the time has come to put these records in print. These first seven generations cover a span of over two hundred years. A number has been given to each member bearing the Pancoast name as their place on the family tree has been determined. In each family group I have included the grandfather's number also for easier reference.

I know that this is not complete, there are a few Pancoasts that I have been unable to trace further. If any reader has additional information it will be gratefully received.

THE PANCOAST FAMILY

The Pancoasts are of English origin, coming to America from Northamptonshire. Pancoast, the present spelling, was used by John in 1676 when he signed the "Consessions and Agreements". However, John brought with him in 1680 a certificate from Friends in England wherein his name was spelled Panckhurst. This supports the idea that our 'Pancoast' spelling was adopted by John and explains why 'Pancoast' is not found as a family name in England.

Several years ago, Leon Pancoast, of Philadelphia, was in correspondence with Sylvia Pankhurst of London. She and her sister were very well known during the Woman's Suffrage Movement in England. She wrote to Leon Pancoast in part as follows:

> "I may supplement your information by stating that the name originates from Kent, and that records in the family Bible show that it used to be spelt Penkhurst, the spelling being changed by my great-great-grandfather. For what reason I do not know.
> "The name is obviously Kentish as 'Pen' is a well-known Kentish designation of hill; and 'Hurst' is also a Kentish designation for home or house. At one time it was spelled Peneshurst as is indicated in the list of patrons of Lyghe Church near Penshurst. Moreover, it is known that my Grandfather lived in Kent on the family estate before moving to Cheshire, where he became the proprietor and headmaster of a school. In the Roman period, as perhaps in the Norman period, when French was predominant in England, the name was altered to DePenchester and at one time to Pencestre as indicated by an old record."

Enough about our line in England, other than to say that 'our' John who came over to Burlington County in 1680, was the son of Joseph, and grandson of Revererd Samuel of Ashton. John, in preparing to come to America, secured the following certificate of Removal, which was duly presented to the Friends Meeting at Burlington.

> "From the Men's Monthly Meeting at Ugbrook, in the County of Northampton in old England, the 13th Day of the 3rd month (May) 1680, to ye ffrds. and Brethern in New Jersey, in America, greetings.
> "Whereas this friend John Panckhurst of Ashton having laid his intentions of transporting himself into New Jersey and desired a Certificate from this Meeting. These may therefore let you understand that ye sd John Panckhurst hath lived soberly as becometh ye truth and yt he is clear from all women as to relative in marriage soe far as we urderstand. And that friends here have not anything against his trarsporting himself by reason yt we do not understand but that he hath left all things clear as to his debts: all we thought meet to signifie etc., in testimony thereunto we whose names are here written have set our hand by the direction of ye sd meeting I shall rest you ffrds. and brethern:"

Signed by - Thomas Poole and eight others.

Shortly after securing this "Certificate of Removal", John Pancoast left his home at Ashton, five miles from Northampton in Northamptonshire, England, and with his family of eight children (two sons and six daughters), came into America on the ship "Paradise"; William Evelyn, Master, landing at Burlington on the fourth of October, 1680.

"The Concessions and Agreements of the Proprietors, Freeholders and inhabitants of the Province of West New Jersey in America" was drawn up and signed in England on March 3rd, 1676. Many of its important features were incorporated into our Constitution one hundred years later. This document was signed by 151 men, including William Penn, who were directly interested in West Jersey. John Pancoast, a signer, may be one of those who signed after they arrived in America.

Within three weeks of his landing, "John's first survey was recorded for 100 acres of land in "Burlington County" on the north side of Assiscunk Creek against Mattacopenny Branch". Four days later, October 28, 1680, John Pancas recorded a deed for 1/32 of a 10-90th share of the province of West Jersey. This is easier to visualize when we remember that the Province was first divided into 100 shares. Ten of these were awarded to Fenwick and became known as the Fenwick tenth (roughly, Salem County).

The Quakers, who settled at Burlington in 1677, were really in two groups, one from Yorkshire and the other from London. The land from the Rancocas Creek to Timber Creek was selected as the London Tenth, and from the Rancocas north to the Assunpink at Trenton, as the Yorkshire Tenth. The city of Burlington was founded jointly by the two groups. The proprietors bought their land from the Indians, the first Indian deed being dated October 10, 1677. Ten years later, this deed was recorded. May 25, 1687 - John Pancoast - and 58 others, "Proprietors of several undivided shares of West Jersey, to Thomas Budd, for 1500 acres to be bought of the Indians".

John also had signed on February 13, 1687 - with twenty-six other Proprietors, an agreement --- to issue a warrant to the General Surveyor to survey and lay out --- ye said lands.

He also signed February 22, 1688 - with others, giving consent of the Proprietors to the agreement made with East Jersey concerning the partition line by Daniel Coxe.

John's daughter Mary was married August 17, 1682, at the Burlington Friends Meeting to Seth Smith. Then she was recorded as "Mary, daughter of John Pankhurst of Esiskunk Crooks". This name given by John to his plantation in Burlington County may come from his old home in England.

Among the early Jersey Records, the name of John Pancoast is found in several places. As different surveys are made to him - as he signs as a Proprietor, business papers, and in the court record of ear-marks for cattle made August 8, 1685, as follows: "John Pancoast. Left ear slit, ye Right cut out".

John took an active part in Civil affairs of the province. He served as regulator of weights and measures in 1681. He was a Constable of Yorkshire Tenth in 1682, and served as a member of the Assembly of the Province of West New Jersey in 1685.

John Pancoast and his first wife, Elizabeth, had nine children who came to America, three sons and six daughters. However, the mother Elizabeth had died in England and John was a widower when he and his eight children came over in 1680. One son, James, had preceded them, unknown to them at that time. It seems that James, who was bound apprentice to a watchmaker in London, was kidnapped and brought to Maryland and sold by the Captain to some gentleman there. However, James worked out his time, bought a tract of land on the Potomac in 1687, acquired a nice estate, and became a leading citizen of Prince Georges County. About 1734, learning of his family's being in New Jersey, James came north for a visit and upon returning home, was drowned crossing the Potomac River, leaving no heirs.

John Pancoast married as his second wife, Ann Snowden, in the fall of 1682. Seven years later, in 1689, again a widower, he married his third wife, Jane Chapman. Jane, as the widow of Thomas Curtis, had married John Chapman, who died within a few months. When she married John Pancoast, less than five months later, they were reproved for their haste by the Burlington Meeting of Friends. John Pancoast died in December of 1694 and his widow later married her fourth husband, Thomas Crosse.

The ages of John's children are not known except the son Joseph, who was born in 1672. However, John's will gives some help, as he names his daughters in order. James is not named, and William is treated as the oldest son.

JOHN PANCOAST

Additional interesting information has come to light in regards to John's second wife, Ann (Snowden) Pancoast. She served as a midwife among the Quaker settlers of Burlington and was a "wittness" for at least 8 "birthings" from 1681 to 1687.

First known was on the 8th of 3rd mo 1681 at the birth of Samuel, son of Samuel and Elizabeth Coles, Ann Snowden, midwife.
1684, 3rd mo 24th for daughter Hannah of John and Hannah Woolston, Ann Pankest, witness.
1684, 8th mo 31st for Thomas, son of Thomas and Boarton, Ann Panchost, witness.
1685, 3mo 29th for Ann, daughter of Thomas and Hestor Butcher, Ann Pancoast, midwife.
1685 9mo 20th for Elizabeth, daughter of John and Elizabeth Day, Ann Panckust, witness.
1686 8 mo 12th for John, son of Thomas and Ann Barton, Ann Panckust, midwife.
1687 2mo 18th for Thomas, son of Thomas and Hester Butcher, Ann Panchust, midwife.

The first entry above in 1681 shows Arn served as midwife prior to her marriage to John Pancoast. The following show several ways of spelling the name.

John's daughter Mary (Smith) Wheat also is shown as midwife in these records.

(Extra - John Panccast)

John's third wife Jane was a long time friend of the family. Both the Pancoast and Curtis families had been members of the Bugbrook Friend's Meeting in the parish of Bugbrook, six miles south-west of Northampton in Northampshire, England. The children of both families were in the same age bracket, most of them being born in the 1660's.

1. JAMES PANCOAST - John

James was apparently the third and youngest son of John, and the only one who did not come in the family group in 1680.

From Court Records in 1802, from testimony given by Mary (Pancoast) Hewes and her brother Edward Pancoast, children of William, William, John.

"She has heard her father and others of the family, now dead, say that her grandfather (William) and his brother Joseph Pancoast, emigrated from England"; "that before they emigrated, they had a younger brother who had been bound apprentice to a mechanic; to a watchmaker, in London"; "that this brother was kidnapped from London and brought to Maryland and sold by the captain of the vessel to some gentleman in Maryland." "That this brother was a youth when kidnapped and had made his situation krown after he was sold to his Master", "that this Master treated him with great kindness and as one of the family and he was not treated as a Servant"; "that when his time was out he continued to reside in the family of his Master, who advised him to take up vacant land, which he did."

"That some time after the Pancoasts settled in Jersey, they advertised for their other brother (James)." "By that means, some time after, they got a letter from James and he came to see them in Jersey." "That the two brothers in Jersey solicited him to come up and settle with them and offered him a plantation if he would come; that he agreed to sell his land in Maryland, he returned to Maryland and was afterwards drowned in the River Potomac", "that he never heard of his having any heirs but his two brothers, William & Joseph."

This old grant, known as 'Pencotts Invention', lies in the District of Columbia today. It was for 700 acres, granted February 7th, 1686.

William Pancoast, son of Caleb, Willian, William, John, located this tract and recovered it but failed to hold it.

2. MARY PANCOAST - John

m. 1st. 1682 Seth Smith
m. 2nd. 1689 Benjamin Wheate

Mary, named first in her father's will, was probably the oldest child of John and Elizabeth Pancoast and must have been a young lady when they came from England in 1680.

On August 7, 1682, the Burlington Friends Meeting gave their consent and on August 17, Mary Pankhurst, daughter of John of Esiskunk Crooks, Burlington County, and Seth Smith, of Burlington, were married under the care of the Meeting.

Seth had bought 80 acres at Burlington in partnership with Thomas Foulk, selling it off in small lots. Seth also operated a boat on the Delaware River in the freight business between Salem and Burlington counties. There are records of his hauling freight from Salem to Pennsbury for Gov. William Penn between 1685 and 1688.

Seth died in 1688 leaving a son Seth who died within a year.

In the fall of 1689 Mary married Benjamin Wheate without the consent of the Meeting. Benjamin, a Burlington Friend, was a cordwainer (shoemaker) and also what we would term a real estate dealer, acting as land agent for others in addition to his own holdings. There is a beautiful table at the front of the Burlington Meeting today that was made by Benjamin Wheate according to a brass plate attached thereto.

In 1697 Benj. Wheate, as one of the Quaker Members of the House of Representatives of West Jersey, signed an Agreement to uphold the interests of King William III of England.

Benjamin, in 1698, witnessed the will of Sarah Farr, who mentions Benj. Wheate, Jr., in her will.

Benjamin died on December 14, 1713; and Mary, widowed the second time, married in 1715, with permission of the Burl. Frds. Mtg., William Dunn.

Seth Smith and Mary's children:

Mary Smith	b. 6-12-1685	d. 7- 2-1685
Seth Smith	b. 6-20-1687	d. 2-16-1689

Benjamin Wheate and Mary's children:

Benjamin	b. 3-12-1690	d. 3-26-1690
Benjamin	b. 1-14-1692/3	m. Elizabeth

His three youngest children were: Hannah, Dinah, and Abigail.

3. ANN PANCOAST - John

m. 1681 Thomas Smith

Ann, the daughter of John and Elizabeth Pancoast, was a young lady when the Panccast family arrived from England in October 1680.

The next spring, May 14, 1681, Ann was married to Thomas Smith of Cohansey in the Fenwick Colony.

Thomas had bought 1000 acres from John Fenwick and located it in "Shrowes burie Neck", south of the Cohansey. Of a later transaction is found this record of the land patent. "Jan. 26, 1678/80 John Fenwick to Thomas Smith, late of Moseley, Parish of Chadleton, Co. of Stafford, now Shrowesburie Neck, Fenwick Colony, gentlemen, and William Johnscn, for 500 acres at Shrowesburie Neck, here after to be called Moseleys - Shield and Johnsons Cottage."

In 1682 Thomas Smith of Cohansey recorded a bargain to keep two cows for Robert Wace, of Upland, Chester Co., Pa., for half the increase.

In 1684 Thomas was a member of the General Assembly. When Greenwich was laid out in 1688, Thomas Smith, yoeman, received a 16 acre town lot on Main Street and was one of the first to settle there.

Thomas and his family had moved to his plantation in Back Neck known as the Smith Island tract prior to his death in 1692.

His will dated November 22, 1692, and the Inventory was taken December 2, 1692. In his will he names his four children.

A year later the following agreement was recorded on December 4, 1693. "These are to Certifie yt it is agreed upon by and between Ann Smith and Thomas Yard before their Marryage, That ye sd Ann Smith shall and may have libberty to give unto her two sons Seth and Jeremiah each of them one yearling heifer at anytime after they attaine to the age of twelve years. As Witness my hand Thomas Yard."

Eighteen months later Ann was again widowed. On June 10, 1695, administration of the estate of Thomas Yard was granted to his widow Ann.

The children of Thomas and Ann Smith

1. Solomon 1682-1739. He was a carpenter in Burlington, stage operator Burlington to Amboy, also a member of the first Board of Island Managers in 1727. He married 1st in 1715 Mary Roper and 2nd in 1723 Sarah (Rowland) Smith, wd. Solomon and Mary had three children; Thomas m Rebecca Wood, Anna m John Carlile and Mary m Mathew Forsythe. Solomon and Sarah had a son Samuel m Tryphena Pancoast, daughter of Thomas and Anne.

4. WILLIAM PANCOAST - John

m. 1695 Hannah Scattergood

William, the oldest son of John and Elizabeth Pancoast, was born in England and came over with his father in 1680.

That William was the oldest son of John was proven in Court during the "Pencott Invention" Trial. In 1801 it was testified, by Edward, that his brother Caleb was the oldest son of William, the oldest son of William, the oldest son of John.

On September 5, 1695, William and Hannah Scattergood, daughter of Thomas and Elizabeth, were married at the Burlington Friends Meeting.

William, as the oldest son, inherited the Proprietary Rights of his father. However, he added to them greatly as on December 25, 1697, he purchased 1/32 of a share from Henry Grubb; in March of 1698 he bought 1/12 of a share from George Porter. In April of 1700 William received a survey of 270 acres near Little Egg Harbour, received as a dividend.

William and Hannah resided on the homestead in Mansfield Township, Burlington County, and had at least nine children, six sons and three daughters. One son, Edward, died young; the others all married and raised families. Their descendants are legion.

William died in 1742 between July 10, when he made a codicil to his will, and August 28, when it was probated. In his will he named his wife and eight children.

The children of William and Hannah were:

10.	William	b. 1698	m.	1730	Mary Copeland

THOMAS SCATTERGOOD

As the two Pancoast brothers married two Scattergood sisters, all descendants with the Pancoast name are also descended from Thomas and Elizabeth (Jarvis) Scattergood.

Thomas Scattergood brought his wife and children to West Jersey from the Parish of Stepney, London, England, about 1677.

They settled in that year on a 160 acre farm on Crafts Creek about one mile west of Columbus in Burlington County, West Jersey.

There has always been a tradition that the Scattergood family spent their first winter in West Jersey, living in a cave dug into the north bank of Crafts Creek.

Their plantation adjoined Percivall Towle's "Sutton Lodge" from whom Thomas bought 100 acres in 1686. The families may have been related as Thomasin Towle left legacies to several of the Scattergood family, including both Thomasin and Hannah Pancoast.

From the Evening Courier of Camden dated Saturday, Nov. 1, 1930, in an article on the Old Springfield Meeting of Friends.

"Thomas Scattergood, it will be remembered, was a great friend to the wandering tribes of Indians who once made their home in Southern Burlington County. He and his family made their home in a cave near Columbus and when death ended his eventful life, the first Americans were much in evidence as chief mourners. Scattergood did not favor the old boundary line and to show it he provided in his will that any Indian should feel free to visit and have access to any of his lands."

The Scattergood children, all born in England, were:

Elizabeth	m. 1687	Thonas Bryan
Thomas	m. 1694	Phebe Wetherill
Benjamin	m. 1703	Martha Shreve
Sarah	m. 1693	Richard French
Hannah	m. 1695	William Pancoast

Elizabeth, daughter of John and Elizabeth Pancoast, came from England with her father in 1680. On August 11, 1693, Elizabeth and Joseph Bacon, son of Samuel and Martha, born April 7, 1672, obtained a New Jersey Marriage License. Joseph would have been ten years of age when his parents sailed from Massachusetts and up the Cohansey River to the first high ground, Bacons Neck, in Salem County.

Joseph and Elizabeth located in Back Neck, across the Cohansey from his father's plantation. On August 3, 1695, William Dare bought 100 acres from Samuel Hedge and the same day assigned it over to Joseph Bacon. This tract was sold by Joseph in May of 1699 to Benj. Davis from Long Island. It was later referred to as "in the Peach Neck on the Bayside". Joseph witnessed his brother John's will in 1715.

Joseph served as Sergeant in the Colonial Militia in 1715 on the North side of the Cohansey at Greenwich. His nephew Seth Smith, private, was in the same Company.

Joseph and Thomasin made their home in Mansfield Township, where they raised a family of ten children. Joseph died October 12, 1766, 94 years of age, having seen many changes in over 86 years. It is from the Bible records kept by Joseph that much is learned of the early generations. He also left a long will, naming many of his grandchildren.

The farm where he was living he left to grardson Joseph, son of Benjamin. The profit from said farm to go to his wife Thomasin.

In William's will of Aug. 1763, he directs his real estate to be sold and the youngest son, Aaron, to get two shares to the others' one share. Undoubtedly, the others had received shares when they became of age. None of the children remained in Burlington Co. but scattered to new locations.

In the spring of 1750 Mary was living in Burlington when she was bonded as guardian of her son Israel.

As often happens under such conditions, the widow was unable to keep the children together in a family group. They became scattered and have been hard to trace.

Of the seven children, five have been located so far.

Mary married again on April 7, 1760, William Hoge. By this time Esther was married and the boys were old enough to be working.

William and Mary Hoge and her daughter Hannah moved to Montgomery Co., Md. in 1763, transferring their membership in Friends to the Fairfax, Va. Meeting. Mary's four sons all left Jersey and followed their mother within the next six years. As a result, the only grandchild of this couple living in New Jersey was William Pancoast Potts.

That Marmaduke was an active member of the Chesterfield Mtg. is shown by their minutes. In Feb. of 1734, he signed with several others a travelling minute to Maryland and Virginia for Richard French. In 1736, he with Samuel Pancoast and two others were to sign a Declaration of Trust for two pieces of ground given by Joseph Borden for a Meeting House and graveyard at Bordentown.

Marmaduke was named an executor in his father-in-law William Pancoast's Will.

Marmaduke, in his will probated July 24, 1749, left his wife "personal estate and three negroes".

14. HANNAH PANCOAST, 4 Wm.,

m. 1725 Matthew Watson

Hannah, the daughter of William and Hannah (Scattergood) Pancoast was born about 1705 in Mansfield Twp., Burl. Co., N. J.

Matthew Watson and Anne Manlever had married in England in 1681 and the following year they came over and settled in Burlington Co., N. J. Their 1000 acres were located on the south bank of Crosswicks Creek. He built his first cabin on a high bluff overlooking the Creek. Nearby, the first fording place above the mouth of the creek became known as Watson's Ford and an important crossing.

The son Matthew, Jr., married Hannah Pancoast on Oct. 19, 1725 at the Springfield Friends Meeting.

On May 7, 1726, Matthew Watson was granted a license to keep a ferry over Crosswicks Creek from his landing to the landing on the opposite shore.

Matthew in his will dated Aug. 13, 1748 and proven Feb. 15, 1750, names his wife and their daughter Hannah.

Hannah Watson, widow, married secondly, Gideon Bickerdike of Trenton who died in 1761. Her will dated Jan. 14, 1769 was proven three months later.

15. SAMUEL PANCOAST, 4 Wm.,

m. 1734 Abigail Copeland

Samuel, the son of William and Hannah Pancoast, was born in Mansfield Twp., Burl. Co., N. J.

Samuel married on March 28, 1734 at the Chesterfield Friends Mtg., Abigail Copeland, daughter of William and Agnes, of Chester, Pa.

The Friends marriage certificate of Samuel and Abigail, in addition to the list of witnesses to the ceremony, has had entered upon it the names and birth dates of their children.

In 1736 Samuel was one of four Friends to sign as Trustees for two pieces of ground given by Joseph Borden for a Friends Mtg. House and graveyard at Bordentown.

Samuel, a weaver, died in Solebury Twp., Bucks Co., Pa. according to his will dated Sept. 28 and proven Oct. 14, 1748. In it he mentions his plantation in Mansfield Twp., Burl. Co.

At the time of Samuel's death, his widow was left with five children, the eldest eleven; and another, Sarah, was born four months later.

Perhaps this explains why the children scattered and are difficult to trace.

In 1758 Abigail was the wife of Joseph Duer and they witnessed her daughter Abigail's wedding in 1764.

The children of Samuel and Abigail:

	Asa	b. May 26-1735	d. 9-18-1736
48.	Joshua	b. Apr. 2-1737	m. Hannah Lownes

Edward married by license dated August 15, 1761, to Hannah King, born December 9, 1739 and died June 15, 1812. Hannah was a daughter of John and Susannah (Cowgill) King of Pemberton, N. J., and a granddaughter of Ralph and Susannah (Pancoast) Cowgill. Edward and Hannah were second cousins.

"From 1765 to 1775 Edward was "Mine Host" at the corner of the Egg Harbor Road and Hanover Street in New Mills (now Pemberton). Known as the 'Lower Tavern', this was an important stage coach stop and community center".

Edward, during the Revolutionary War, was once with a party of men caught in ambush by the British. They were wounded and left for dead. As the British were about to depart, one of their number turned and said, "I saw that man move; I will go back and finish him", to which one of his companions replied, "He is dead and so will you be, if we do not escape at once". Edward Pancoast heard the conversation and was shamming death, as he was conscious and had escaped serious injury.

His son Samuel, born 1769, thoughtlessly as a boy, put on a red flannel shirt to go out to play, and narrowly escaped being shot from a distance, by mistake, for a British soldier.

30. DAVID PANCOAST, 10 Wm.,

m. 1760 Sarah Marll

David, the son of William and Mary (Copeland) Pancoast, was born Sept. 23, 1738 in Mansfield Twp., Burl. Co., N. J.

As a young man, David went to Phila. to work, one of the earliest Pancoasts to leave Burl. Co. Here he met Sarah, dau. of John and Eliz. Marll and they were married at the Phila. Friends Meeting on June 17, 1760.

David became a successful builder and a recognized leader in his field. He also became a Fighting Quaker - an ardent and active patriot. The Phila. Friends Meeting, Northern District, disowned David June 4th., 1776 for his military activities.

On Feb. 10, 1777 David Pancoast was commissioned as a Captain in Col. Flowers Artillery Artificer Regiment. From the minutes of the Navy Board dated Feb. 20, 1777 we find: "Received of Thomas Newell a list of sundry plank, scantling and boards in the hands of David Pancoast -- and others -- at the corner of 5th and Chestnut Streets."

Again on Feb. 26, 1777 is found: "Ordered that Samuel Massey and Paul Cox make enquiry for all Cannon belonging to this State and to call on Pancust for that purpose, and particularly for two pair short four pounders."

From pension papers of Mathias Foos, 1822 - "On March 17, 1777 I enlisted at Phila. in Captain David Pancus' Company, Corps of Artificers under Col. Benj. Flowers, Pa. Line; sent to French Creek for a few weeks, whence to York and Carlisle where discharged March 17, 1778 on the Continental Establishment."

David led a detachment to round up the church bells of the City and hide them away for safe keeping from the British.

Rev. Andreas Goranson Left this record:

"I was not in the least molested by the so called Continental Government ------ but on Sept. 18th. a crowd of men came along to take down the bell, saying that they had orders to take down all the bells in the City. (Phila.). I refused this completely, adding that our little bell was a great rarity and had come from Sweden with the Colony (in 1644), ------ etc."

"The 21st. when I had gone to Pennypack to preach they came again in this matter and when my wife offered some difficulty they made it known that they would have the bell even though they would have to go after a Company to fetch it."

The receipt follows:

"Received from Mr. Andrew Johnson one small bell, being the property of the Vestry of the Swedish Church, by order of the Executive Council of the State of Penna. to Colonel Benjamin Flower to have the bells of the city deposited in some safe place.

David Pancoast, Capt., Southwark".

Sept. 21st. 1777.

(This Church now known as Gloria Dei, in Southwark, Phila.)

David resigned his military post in April of 1778.

Later in 1778, after the British had evacuated Phila. and the American forces had resumed possession of the Continental Capital, David was one of the organizers of the 'Patriotic Association' whose declared objective was "to support each other in disclosing and bringing to Justice all Tories within their knowledge." On Oct. 19, 1778 David took the Test Oath, required by a recent Act of Assembly.

In 1779, when a desperate state of affairs existed in Phila., due to the scarcity of food and other essentials, owing to certain store-keepers who were charging prohibitive prices, a committee of patriotic citizens was formed to set and enforce fair prices on necessaries of life. David Pancoast was chosen a member of this important committee.

In the spring of 1781 David left Phila. and settled in Frederick Co., Va. In 1784 he was Inspector at a Public Warehouse at Winchester - also received deer taxes.

In 1785 David settled at Alexandria, Va. and established himself as a Merchant Shipper, as well as a builder.

William Pancoast, a nephew, the son of David's older brother Caleb and a bricklayer, left Phila. in 1785 and joined his Uncle David in Alexander. David was very much interested in the estate of his great uncle James, and of William's effort to claim it.

David died at Alexandria prior to Sept. 1804 and Sarah in May of 1819.

James was the son of Joseph and Sarah (Tidmarsh) Lownes of Phila.

James and Sarah lived in Phila. where several of their children were born. They had moved to Virginia by 1779, to Hopewell Mtg. area.

Sarah's death may have occurred just prior to 1792 when the family scattered, some going to Phila. James was living in Richmond, Va., when he married secondly, by 1803, Ann (Pancoast) Robinson, widow of Francis and daughter of Caleb, a brother of Sarah, and therefore Sarah's niece.

Mary, the youngest child of William and Mary (Copeland) Pancoast, was born in Burl. Co., N. J. Feb. 2, 1748.

Her only sister Sarah had married in Phila. in 1763 and Mary, living in Phila., was married there, license date May 17, 1770 to Aaron Hewes, most likely a grandson of Aaron 1700-1753, of New Jersey.

From the Quaker records, we find they moved from Phila. to Salem N. J., in the spring of 1777, then by 1780 they moved to Hopewell Mtg. Va. In 1782 they transferred to Fairfax Mtg. Va. and were automatically members in 1802 of Alexandria Meeting when it was set off from Fairfax. Aaron was made a trustee on the deeds when ground was purchased in 1804 and also on committees.

Mary's brother David and sister Sarah Lownes and others of her family also had moved to Virginia from Phila.

In 1802, Mary testified in a court case brought by her brother Caleb's son William, to recover the "Pencotts Invention" estate left by her great Uncle James Pancoast.

Mary and Aaron returned to Phila. to live in 1815. Their daughters, Lydia, Sarah and Mary Ann were also in Phila., where Mary died Jan. 24, 1829. The date of Aaron's death has not been found.

On Aug. 20, 1761 Jarvis, of Chesterfield, bricklayer, sold the above lots to Levi Nutt.

I have found no other trace of Jarvis since 1761.

Did he go to Va. with his older brother Israel? Did he work in Phila. as a bricklayer? Or did he live in Bordentown?

Mary, the fifth child and second daughter of Joseph and Mary (Ogborne) Pancoast, was born Dec. 16, 1740 in Mansfield Twp., Burl. Co., N. J.

Mary was married by license issued on Dec. 18, 1764 to Samuel Bryan, son of Hearn and Mary (Eldridge) Bryan. Their marriage did not comply with the rules of the Burl. Friends Meeting, of which Mary was a member, and she was disowned.

Later the family were members of Mount Holly Mtg. until they were disowned Feb. 9, 1780.

39. JOSEPH PANCOAST, 11 Jos.,

Joseph, the youngest son of Joseph and Mary (Ogborne) Pancoast was born May 20, 1743 in Mansfield Twp., Burl. Co., N. J.

When his father died, Joseph was only six years of age. The family was broken up and Joseph has been hard to trace.

He was living in Pilesgrove Twp., Salem Co., N. J. when he made his will in 1791 at the age of 48. In this will he mentions brothers Israel and Shedlock and leaves his house and 10 acres of ground to his sister Hannah. From this we infer that Joseph had no wife or children.

This will is published in the Archives under the name of Thomas Pancoast but is fourd to be Joseph when searched at Trenton.

42. ESTHER PANCOAST, 12 John.,

m. 1758 Stacy Potts

Esther the oldest child of John and Mary (Croshaw) Pancoast, was born May 16, 1739 in Mansfield Twp., Burl. Co., N. J.

Esther was married on June 13, 1758 at the Lower Springfield Friends Mtg. House to Stacy, son of Thomas and Sarah (Beakes) Potts, born Sept. 20, 1731 of Trenton.

Stacy was a tanner by trade and carried on that business in Trenton. His home was a commodious frame structure on King St. opposite what was later Perry St. His tan yard of 64 vats was nearby.

During the occupation of Trenton by the British in 1776, his house was used by the Hessian Colonel Rahl as his headquarters.

Stacy and Esther had five children before her death May 13, 1769, less than a year after the birth of her son William.

Stacy married as his second wife Margaretta Yardley. Of their five children, the first was another son Thomas who was born in 1774 and who died the next year. The others were Stacy, Joseph, Anna and Rebecca. Their mother Margaretta died on Aug. 25, 1783 and Stacy later remarried.

About 1791 Stacy left Trenton and settled at Harrisburg, Pa.

Wounded in the Battle of Trenton

How an innocent bystander, a little girl was a casualty of the engagement.

Stacy Potts, who had married Esther Pancoast, was living in Trenton on the West side of King Street (now Warren) in December of 1776. It was a large house opposite what was later Perry Street.

To the north of his house and reached by an alley was his tan yard, a large tract with 54 vats, located on Pettys Run.

To the south of his home lived Miss Rebecca Coxe - opposite the church (St. Michaels).

Potts' house had been chosen by Col. Rahl, the Hessian commander, as his headquarters, during the British occupation of Trenton.

The Patriots, after crossing the Delaware Christmas night, had reached Trenton about 8 A.M. of the 26th. As they arrived at the head of King Street, under General Washington's orders Captain Forrest opened a six gun battery which command the street. Seeing that the British were forming a battery down the street, the advance guard rushed them and captured the guns.

Around 8 A.M., Stacy's "little daughter" had been over to see Miss Coxe on an errand. On her return home she was hit by a spent bullet. The rifle ball only grazed her scalp.

During this engagement there were many casualties, among them Col. Rahl.

Colonel Rahl was shot from his horse and fell, mortally wounded, in the street. Here General Washington found him, pale and bleeding. Rahl presented his sword to Gen. Washington who had him removed to his headquarters at Stacy Potts' house and carried to a second floor bedroom.

Potts' daughter, with her head bandaged, helped clean up Col. Rahl before Generals Green and Washington arrived to visit with Rahl who was dying.

Stacy and Esther (Pancoast) Potts had three young daughters, Mary nearly 18, Sarah 14 and Elizabeth 11. It is thought that the "little daughter" mentioned above would mean Elizabeth, the youngest.

43. ADIN PANCOAST, 12 John,

m. 1762 Diadema Curtis
m. 1767 Abigail Boone

Adin, the oldest son of John and Mary (Croshaw) Pancoast, could not have been over 9 years of age when his father died in 1749. By his father's will, Adin received land adjoining his Pancoast Uncles in Mansfield Twsp., Burl. Co., N. J.

Adin married on Apr. 22, 1762, Diadema Curtis, the daughter of his 1st. cousin, Ann (Watson) Curtis.

On Dec. 18, 1764, a son was born to them in Burl. Co. The date of death of Diadema is not known - she may have born other children.

Adin married secondly, May 28, 1767, Abigail Boone, daughter of William and Sarah (Lincoln) Boone, at the Exeter Frds. Mtg., Berks Co., Pa.

Witnesses to their wedding certificate included Wm., Sarah & Mordecai Boone, John & Joseph Pancoast, Mordecai & Abraham Lincoln & 53 others. (This John & Joseph Pancoast have not been identified) (sons?).

Their first child, a daughter, was born Apr. 3, 1768 in Burl. Co. One year later to the day, the Burlington Frds. granted a Certificate of removal to the Fairfax Va. Mtg., to Adin, Abigail and dau. Diadamy. On Oct. 26, 1769, Fairfax Mtg. endorsed this Certif. to West River Mtg.,

Md. "They have settled near Indian Spring, Md. and West River Mtg., being more convenient to them."

Adin Pancoast took the Oath of Fidelity in 1778 in Montgomery Co., Md. See Box 4 - folder 5.1 - page 2 - 3 items.

Adin is listed as a customer Nov. 10, 1778 of the Gun Lock Factory, Frederick, Md., with Sam'l. Boone & others.

The only recorded birthplace of the other children is of William, born April 16, 1781 at Georgetown, Kent Co., Md. (The Eastern Shore).

On July 26, 1794, Fairfax Frds. appointed a committee to examine into the status of Adin and family with Burl. Mtg., N. J., West River Mtg., Md. & Exeter, Pa. Mtg. Deciding that the certificate of 1769 was lost, Burl. Mtg. issued one in 1795 to Exeter Mtg. for Abigail and some of her children. Then in 1797 Abigail and minor ch., Wm., Thos., & Hezekiah went to Catawissa Mtg. Asa & Mary followed the next year. Mordecai & Pemberton also located there. The daughters Diadamy and Sarah had married prior to this.

Adin, not a member on record, may have been disowned because of Rev. War activity.

Hezekiah, Mordecai & William, with their families, went to Wayne Co., Ohio about 1820.

Pemberton also went to Columbiana Co., Ohio from Orangeville, Columbia Co., Pa. Asa and Thomas both died in Pa., near Catawissa.

Jane McGuire in her notes of 1914 about Adin refers to "The seven sons of Adin" and then names them, including "John?" with a question mark after the name & nothing more.

In the Friends Cem. at Catawissa, Mrs. Geisinger erected markers to 'grandfather Mordecai' and 'Great Uncle John Pancoast'.

In a letter 2-9-1914 from Mary Emma Walters of Catawissa "In 1772 a family of McIntyres lived at the mouth of Roaring Creek on the Susquahanna River. In 1797 they moved to the hill country and the Pancoasts took this property. John Pancoast, who was advanced in years had come with the rest from New Jersey."

Was this John, Adin's first child by his 1st. wife? Who was the Joseph present at the wedding of Adin and Abigail? There was a 25 year span between the 1st. son & Hezekiah.

Abigail died 3-14-1808 and Adin Dec. 12, 1822 in Ohio among his children there, well advanced in age. Death dates with family record of Hezekiah & Rachel.

They lived in Maryland until 1782 when they moved to Loudoun Co., Va., onto the 200 acre farm of Ruth's father. Ruth died here on Jan. 22, 1787 when her fourth child was only one week old.

When Isaac Nichols died in 1802 he left this farm to John. This farm - known as "Forrest Home" remained a Pancoast farm thru five generations, passing down to the oldest son.

Abigail, and Robert Hunt, born Aug. 1, 1745, son of Robert and Abigail (Wood) Hunt, were married at the "Makefield Frds. Mtg." Bucks Co., Pa. on Dec. 19, 1764.

A copy of their wedding certificate and many of their descendants are found in "Gen. History of the Robert & Abigail (Panccast) Hunt Family, Columbus, 1906.

Robert and Abigail settled in Evesham near his parents and here most of their ch. were born. This period during the Rev. War was quite a trial to all the farmers. As soon as a farmer raised grain or live stock, it was taken to feed the troops. Robert had learned the trade of shoemaker at Mansfield and later bought and operated a tannery.

In 1783, Robert moved his family to Va. near Culpepper. Here his youngest child, Seth was born.

They moved to Winchester, then Brownsville, Pa., and then near Salem, O. in 1804. Robert Hunt died here in 1805, Nov. 2nd.

Abigail, a widow of 62 years, sold the Salem farm and took up a section of virgin land near Massillon O. While Seth remained to close up their affairs at Salem, Abigail went aheac to their new location in the wilderness. When Seth arrived he found a home ready for him. His mother had cleared ground, hired workmen to build a log cabin then had moved in.

This section was sold in 1815 and when Abigail died in 1827, they had a store at Millersburg.

52. SAMUEL PANCOAST, 15 Sam'l.

m. 1771 Sarah Stephens

Samuel, the son of Samuel and Abigail Pancoast, was born Oct. 20, 1745 in Solebury, Bucks Co., Pa., where his father was a weaver.

Samuel was less than 3 years of age when his father died. In 1762 when Samuel was 17, he went to Phila. as an apprentice to his brother Joshua.

Sarah Stephens Hutchens, widow, and daughter of James Stephens, was married to Samuel on May 9, 1771 at the Phila. Mtg. of Friends. The date of Sarah's death has not been found but she was living in 1799 when they and daughters Sarah and Abigail moved to the Chesterfield Mtg.

Samuel married as his second wife, also at Phila. Mtg. on March 3, 1803, Mary (Jones) Morris, widow of Anthony C. Morris and daughter of William and Ann (Moss) Jones.

Samuel became a carpenter and builder in Phila. In directories of 1785 to 1791 he is so listed at 29 Chestnut St.

Samuel and his brother Joshua Pancoast were both members of the Carpenters Company of Philadelphia. (see their 1786 Rule Book). It is reported that they both helped build Carpenters Hall in 1770.

The beautiful old Wharton House at 336 Spruce St. is one of the houses built by Samuel as a carpenter and builder. He built it for Mordecai Lewis, prominent merchant and importer. In 1817 Samuel Rowland Fisher bought the house and gave it to his daughter Deborah as a wedding gift upon her marriage to William Wharton. The Wharton family owned the house for many years. It was bought and restored about 1963 to serve as the rectory of Christ Church. In 1974 it was opened as one of six houses on a tour connected with the annual exhibit. The hardware and paneling are considered especially fine examples of workmanship.

Samuel was an early member of the Fellowship Fire Co., in 1780 one of the organizers of the Humane Society, in 1809 one of the original subscribers to stock in the Penna Co. for Insurance of Lives and Granting Annuities, etc.

In 1805 the family was at 21 Samson St.; then in 1809 moved to Darby. They returned to Phila. in 1813 where Samuel died on July 22, 1834, in his 90th year. His wife had died Feb. 25, 1832.

Samuel left his estate to be divided into four parts among his 4 children or their heirs, naming his two sons-in-law.

Samuel was a watch and clock maker. He maintained a shop at his home in Bordentown where he made and repaired time-pieces. There is a record of one clock that he made for Joseph Borden. After Borden's death this clock was sold at an auction sale to John Pancoast. John, a brother of Thomasin left this clock to his daughter Elizabeth who married William Bennett. Her grandson, William Bennett Bunting at one time owned this clock. Its present owner is unknown by me.

Samuel lived in Salem, N. J. about 1775 to 1777. He returned to Bordentown after the War and died there in Oct. of 1785. His will dated Oct. 1st. was probated on Oct. 25th. In it he names his wife and children.

61. MARY PANCOAST, 18 John,

m. John Butler

Mary, the daughter of John and Elizabeth (Ogborne) Pancoast, was born about 1727 in Chesterfield Twp., Burl. Co., N. J.

Her father died intestate in Feb. of 1748/9. Her mother left a will dated Nov. 4, 1749 which named only three children. This would indicate that both Mary and Thomasin were married by then.

As 'Mary Butler' she is named in her grandfather Joseph Pancoast's will dated Nov. 4, 1762. The fact that Mary had "three children" is mentioned in this will. This is taken to mean that they were of both sexes as in another instance he refers to a grandson's "three daughthers".

In checking the probate record of Joseph's estate, an Elizabeth Butler received a share. The names of Mary's other two children are not found in this record. Another daughter is thought to be the Sarah Butler who was married in Burl. Co. Oct. 16, 1782 to Thomas Kelsey of Bucks Co., Pa. They later had a granddaughter named Susan Pancoast Kelsey. The third child of Mary and John Butler may have been a son but has not as yet been identified.

John Butler is named as a fellow bondsman when her mother is named as Admrx. of her father's estate. John Butler is also named as a guardian of Mary's brother John Pancoast in 1756.

The probable children of John and Mary were:

Sarah m. Oct. 16-1782 to Thomas Kelsey and lived in Bucks Co., Pa.

63. JOSEPH PANCOAST, 18 John,

m. 1768 Sarah Ridgway

Joseph, son of John and Elizabeth (Ogborne) Pancoast, was born June 6, 1741 in Burl. Co. He died intestate in Chesterfield Twp., Burl. Co. July 27, 1808.

Joseph and Sarah, dau. of Joseph and Hannah (Allen) Ridgway, were married on July 4, 1768 at the Burl. Frds. Mtg. House. Sarah was born March 15, 1748 and died Nov. 29, 1817, leaving a will. The Family Bible, left to dau. Sarah, has not been located.

The family were members of Springfield Frds. Mtg. where the birth dates are recorded as follows:

	Elizabeth	b. 4-8-1769	d. 1779.
146.	Hannah	b. 3-22-1770
147.	John	b. 7-22-1771	m. Ann Abbott

64. JOHN PANCOAST, 18 John,

m. Sarah _____

John, the son of John and Elizabeth (Ogborne) Pancoast, was born in Burl. Co. - date not known. However on Nov. 6, 1756, John petitions the Court that John Butler (his brother-in-law) be appointed his Guardian. This places his age then between 14 and 21 years, or born between 1735 and 1742.

Most of the information on John's family is gleaned from the Wills of Sarah and John. Sarah's Will dated Dec. 3, 1801 - Proved June 5, 1802 names nine childrer. This will also shows their home in Bordentown was her property. Wher the Will was proven, husband John "affirmed" showing him to be a Friend.

John's will dated Aug. 13, 1812 - proved Nov. 27, 1812 names only six children and suggests the prior death of son Thomas and daughters Achsah Ely and Sarah Brown.

Sarah's parentage, birth or marriage dates have not been discovered. However one daughter, probably Elizabeth, was born Dec. 25, 1759 as shown by Dr. Brognard. He also lists daughters born July 19, 1765 and March 18, 1770.

Simeon, the son of Israel and Elizabeth (Haines) Pancoast, was born on Dec. 9, 1768 in Loudoun Co., Va. He was named for his mother's brother, Simeon Haines, who was a neighbor of the family.

Simeon had married, prior to 1792, Mary White. On Sept. 11, 1797 Simeon and Mary his wife of Loudoun Co., deeded to Thomas White (her brother?) a tract of 100 acres, being part of a larger tract known by the name of 'Scotland'.

Again in 1805 is found a record of Simeon granting power of atty. to his brother Joseph. "I, Simeon Pancoast of the Co. of Ohio and Commonwealth of Va. have ------- appointed Joseph Pancoast of Belmont Co. and State of Ohio my true and lawful attorney ----- to sell all my Estate Right Title and Interest to any lands which I am entitled to by the last will of Israel Pancoast ------ dated Nov. 7th. 1805.

Elizabeth was the daughter of Israel and Elizabeth (Haines) Pancoast. Her birth date has not been found but was about 1775, several years after her parents had moved from New Jersey to Loudoun Co., Va.

The marriage record of Elizabeth is found in the records of John Littlejohn of Loudoun Co., Va., who also performed the marriage ceremony for Elizabeth's brother Joseph and for three of her sisters. However, due to poor penmanship, the name of Elizabeth's husband was transcribed as John Reparke instead of Updike, the date being March 10, 1796.

John, the son of John Sr. and Sarah Updike was born in Loudoun Co., Va., where John Sr. had settled after moving from Burlington Co., N. J.

Isaiah was a member of the Mount Holly Friends Meeting when he married about 1787, Leticia, daughter of Caleb and Hope (Rosell) Gaskill.

In the spring of 1790 Isaiah and Leticia left N. J. and went West to Fayette Co., Pa., settling near Uniontown. Here most of their children were born.

About 1805, Isaiah with his family, went West again to locate in Fayette Co., Ohio. He selected 2000 acres of Government land in Perry Township on Deer Creek and erected a small grist mill. This mill was soon rebuilt as more settlers located nearby. Here he laid out the town of Waterloo. This later became the village of Pancoastburg.

Isaiah died Jan. 2, 1844 and Leticia in 1858, both being buried in the old Messmore Cemetery on the bank of Deer Creek. An old mill stone alongside the broken original marker, marks his grave.

ISAIAH PANCOAST

An interesting item on Isaiah as given by his daughter, Jerusha.

Jerusha Pancoast, wife of John Messmore, emigrated to Madison Township, Fayette Co., Ohio in the spring of 1810 with her father, Isaiah Pancoast, and settled on the west bank of Deer Creek. They came from Fayette Co., Pa. where Jerusha was born.

The first season they lived under wagon covers, stretched on poles, until they cleared and planted seven acres in corn, living principally on wild meat and corn-meal.

Then my father erected a very large log house, which served as kitchen, dining-room, parlor and bedroom.

The Indians camped on the opposite side of the creek from us. The squaws came to our house frequently, and would bring venison to trade for meal. The Indian hunters would likk deer and float them down the creek, near to their camp, and the squaws would go down to the creek, drag the deer out, and dress them.

Wolves were very plentiful all the time, and all who had sheep were obliged to pen them up every night.

We were obliged to go to Chillicothe to do our trading. There was not a family living between Waterloo and Washington.

When the Indians moved thier camp they left a small pig behind, and it came to my fathers house, and we put the pig in a pen, and when it grew to a good-sized hog, one of the old Indians came back to our hourse and father showed him his pig and told him to take it and do what he pleased with it. So the Indian killed and dressed it, cut it in two in the middle, left one half hanging, took the other half on his shoulder and carried it to his camp.

We had no schcol houses except log, with puncheon floors. Our first teacher was Colonal Samuel Myers, who gained a great reputation.

103. JONATHAN PANCOAST, 36 Shedlock

m. Sidney

Jonathan, son of Shedlock and Hannah (Atkinson) Pancoast, was born Nov. 11, 1767 in Burlington Co., N. J. The wife and mother having died in 1778, Shedlock moved his six motherless children to Mount Holly, near their relatives.

Jonathan moved his membership in Friends Mtg. from Mt. Holly to Burlington in 1790 and in 1791 the Burl. Frds. Mtg. reproved him for marrying 'out of Meeting.' Jonathan moved to Phila. in 1793 and from there to Fairfax, Va. Mtg. in 1796.

The land records of Alexandria, Va., show him as a land owner there from 1796 to 1806. Jonathan was a bricklayer, starting in Phila. The 1799 Census of Alexandria shows him with a wife and two children, also one apprentice.

Jonathan was reproved, then disowned, in 1801, by the Fairfax Frds. Mtg. It seems he attended a horse race at Alexandria where he bet on his favorite. It is also said that Pres. George Washington was enjoying the same races that day.

Jonathan moved to Cincinnati, O., in 1806 where over the next 50 years he was quite active in helping build the city.

In the Ohio Historical Quarterly Vol. 70 #2 - Apr. 1961 - p. 109 etc. "In March 1814, Jonathan Pancoast, a master bricklayer from New Jersey, opened the 'Mechanics Cotton Manufacturing Co., of Cincinnati" in a brick building in Lodge Alley, between Main, Walnut, Fifth & Sixth Sts." "By the end of 1817, with the expanding importation of textiles from Europe and the East, cotton was no longer profitable. Pancoast's factory closed forever by July 1818.

Jonathan was Tax Assessor in Hamilton Co. from 1829 to 34. He served as Trustee of the Woodward Free Grammer School. He and his son Joseph were both members of the Pioneers' Assoc. which was organized in his own home. Jonathan died on Sunday morning, March 20, 1859, at his home, 347 Race St. and was buried in the Wesleyan Cem. His will dated March 1859 names only two children. There may have been others who predeceased him.

Only known children of Jonathan and Sidney were:

235. Joseph b. 9-28-1791 m. Margaret Whippey

236. Louisa m. Samuel P. Perry

104. MARY PANCOAST, 36 Shedlock

m. Daniel Goldy

Mary, daughter of Shedlock and Hannah (Atkinson) Pancoast was born Nov. 30, 1772 while her parents were members of the Salem, N. J. Mo. Mtg. of Friends.

Her mother died when Mary was less than six years old and Shedlock returned with his children to the Mount Holly area.

Mary was married to Daniel Goldy, the date has not been found. Her son Shedlock was born in 1793.

No further record of Mary or her husband has been found. They may have removed to Ohio and died out there near their son Shedlock.

A Joseph P. Goldy, age 31 yrs. - buried in the Copenny Friends Ground is thought to be a son.

Isaiah Pancoast Goldy born about 1802 is also thought to be a son.

One Rebecca Keturah Goldy married Isaiah Tomlinson Haines, born 1788, in Burl. Co., N. J. She also may have been a daughter of Mary Pancoast above. There are many descendants of this Goldy-Haines line.

Probable children of Daniel and Mary P. Goldy:

Shedlock b. 1793 d. July 18, 1889. Went West to Salem, Columbiana Co., Ohio. Wife and children have not been located.

Isaiah Pancoast, born about 1802 - died Apr. 3, 1885 at Pemberton, N. J. Isaiah m. 3 times, 1st. Mary Estill, 2nd Mary (Stockton) Haines, 3rd. Rebecca Lamb. A son Shedlock Pancoast Goldy went to Salem, Ohio, married Ann Eliza Strawn and had six children, Strawn m. Deborah Johnson; William; Howard; Eleanor m. Elisha Kelty; Charles and Mary m. Mr. Jolly.

The Jesse Pancoast Goldy 1877-1946, m. Agnes Jamison 1873-1960, both buried in Ashland City Cem., O. is most likely a grandson of Shedlock P. and Ann Eliza (Strawn) Goldy above.

105. JOSEPH PANCOAST, 36 Shedlock

m. 1815 Rachel Garciner

Joseph, the youngest child of Shedlock by his second wife Mary (Hampton) Pancoast, was born Oct. 24, 1792. Five years old when his father died, Joseph was raised by his mother.

Joseph was married Nov. 14, 1815 in Salem Co. to Rachel Gardiner and they lived at Sculltown (Auburn), N. J.

Joseph died 9-4-1829 leaving his widow with a saw mill at Sculltown. Their 10th. child was born a month later and as they had lost three, Rachel had seven to raise, Shedlock, the oldest, being 13 years of age.

Rachel married secondly, William Barnett by whom she had a daughter, Sarah born Sept. 15, 1836. Rachel (Gardiner) (Pancoast) Barnett died Apr. 30, 1873.

The children of Joseph and Rachel were:

Diedama, the oldest daughter of Adin and Abigail (Boone) Pancoast, was born in Burl. Co. Apr. 3, 1768.

When Diedama was eighteen she married Walter Elgin who had been active in the Revolutionary War - serving under Samuel Coxe in a Company from Loudon Co., Va. In 1781 he served in a Company under command of his brother, Gustavus Elgin.

Walter was born 1756 - son of Francis and Rebecca Elgin of Loudon Co., Va.

Walter & Diedama lived in Loudon Co. where they raised the following family:

113. SARAH PANCOAST, 43 Adin

m. 1794 Jacob Myers

Sarah, daughter of Adin and Abigail (B-one) Pancoast, was born in Loudoun Co., Va., after 1776 as she was a minor when she married in 1794.

When her parerts and brothers moved away "in the wilderness" and considered it too much of a "risk" to take her along, they left her in care of her Uncle at Goose Creek. (Adin's brother John was living there.

Sarah was married at the Goose Creek Friends Meeting House on May 15, 1794, to Jacob, son of Benjamin and Rachel Myers of Loudoun Co. They had "passed meeting" on April 28th when it was reported that "Jacob had consent of his parent and of the guardian of his intended bride". Witnesses to her marriage were her Uncle John Pancoast and her bro-in-law Walter Elgin.

The following spring this couple transferred their membership to the Fairfax Meeting.

In July of 1798 Jacob was disowned by the Fairfax Mtg. for having bought a slave. I found no further record of this couple.

114. MORDECAI PANCOAST, 43 Adin

m. Mary Mears

Mordecai, son of Adin and Abigail (Boone) Pancoast, was no doubt born in Md. while his parents were members of the West River Friends Mtg. there and was their oldest son.

Mordecai was a young man when the family moved to Catawissa in 1797 and the next year he was married to Mary, daughter of Samuel and Mary Mears of Catawissa, Pa., born April 11, 1782.

Mordecai and family left Pa. about 1820 and settled in Wayne Co., O.

There is a large stone for Mordecai in the Friends Cem. at Catawissa, placed by his granddaughter Abigail Ann Geisinger, but no dates. His widow is thought to be the Mary Pancoast, age 73, living in Wayne Co., O., in 1850 in the family of Pemberton Pancoast, a nephew.

Mordecai and Mary had at least these children:

261. James C. b. 4- 8-1799 m. Mary Yoder

116. PEMBERTON PANCOAST, 43 Adin

m. Vashti

Pemberton, the son of Adin and Abigail (Boone) Pancoast has been hard to trace.

He is said to have had a wife Vashti and at least three children. Also to have lived at Orangeville, north of Bloomsburg, Pa. To have left there and followed his brothers West - to Ohio where he settled in Columbiana County.

Miss Mary McCarty of Ashland, Ohio was a granddaughter of Pemberton's brother Hezehiah Pancoast. In 1914 Miss McCarty reported that there was a Mrs. Lou Berry in West Salem, O. who was a descendant of Pemberton.

The children of Pemberton and Vashti were:

267. Phebe

268. Vashti

269. Pemberton

ref: J. G. McGuire notes, G. Copes notes, 1300 Locust St., Phila.

117. ASA PANCOAST, 43 Adin

Asa, son of Adin and Abigail (Boone) Pancoast, has left few records. He was likely born in Maryland while the family were members of the West River Friends Meeting there. His birth date was about 1771 to 73. In the 1800 Census of Catawissa Twp., Northumberland Co., Pa. he is shown as born before 1774 while he had an older brother Mordecai born about 1770.

From the land records of Washington Co., Md. it is learned that Asa received a deed for land there from William Boone in 1792. He may have just turned 21 at that time. Asa sold some of this land in 1805 and some in 1810.

Asa, as a member of Friends, had moved his certificate of membership to Catawissa, Pa. in 1798. The Mary Pancoast who also went there at this time could have been his sister or his wife. The 1800 Census does not indicate a wife.

Asa died in 1839 between the date of his will on Jan. 21st. and the date of probate Feb. 4th., as recorded in the Court House at Sunbury, Northumberland Co., Pa.

His known children were:

270. Joshua

271. David — m. Rebecca Ward

272. Eliza — m. David Mutchler

273. Lovina — m. 1835 Abraham Zeigler

274. Jane — m. Jacob Miller

118. WILLIAM PANCOAST, 43 Adin

m. 1801 Vashti Cooper

William, the son of Adin and Abigail (Boone) Pancoast was born April 16, 1761 at Georgetown, Md. He died June 2, 1840 and buried at Dover, Wayne Co., Ohio.

William and Vashti Cooper, born May 20, 1782 in Washington, Md., were married Aug. 22, 1801 by Rev. H. Hughes of Northumberland County Pa. Vashti, said to be a relative of Daniel Boone, had an infant sister raised by the Boones in Ky. Vashti died Aug. 19, 1850 and was buried at Dover, Ohio.

The family farmed in Buffaloe Valley, Union County, Pa. where most of their children were born. William purchased a 160 acre farm in Wayne Co., O., near Wooster and is said to have moved there in 1814. The family lived for a while in their wagon until living quarters were built.

The family cow withstood the trip West OK - then shortly afterwards choked to death. Her unborn calf was skinned and the hide cured and used to cover the family Bible. This treasured Bible I have been unable to locate as yet. The records of this Bible were furnished to William T. Lindsey of Pittsburg in June 1900, who in turn gave them to Richard M. Pancoast of Camden, N. J. They are now (1971) in the Camden Co. Hist. Society.

William in addition to farming, had a work shop where, with anvil and forge, he turned out top quality augers and other tools.

William served as Trustee of Wayne Co. in 1819.

The children of William and Yashti were:

John b. 4-20-1802 d. 4-26-1802 bur. Frds., Catawissa, Pa.

275. Sarah b. 6-19-1803 m. Jesse Richey

William's will was probated in Wayne County, Ohio in 1843. The daughter Sarah Richey (Ritchie) had died in Wayne Co., July 27, 1832. Her one seventh share of the estate was divided among her five children - to wit - William, John, Hezehiah, J. and N. B. Richey.

119. THOMAS PANCOAST, 43 Adin

m. Mary Field

Thomas, son of Adin and Abigail (Boone) Pancoast, was probably born in Maryland, birth date unknown.

In the Friend's Membership Certificate dated Nov. 25, 1797 and presented to the Catawissa Friends Mtg., Pa. by his mother, Thomas is listed as a minor.

Thomas was married in 1805 to Mary, dau. of Robert and Phebe (Comly) Field, born Mar. 4, 1778.

Thomas' will dated Dec. 19, 1813 was proven Feb. 19, 1814. He was then a farmer in Shamokin Twp., (now Catawissa) Columbia Co., Pa. His widow married again in 1821, Thomas Mather.

From the Orphans Court records of Columbia Co. we learn that Thomas left 5 children, all under 14 years of age, when on April 8, 1818, the Court appointed Isaiah Willits, guardian.

Four years later, Apr. 6, 1822 Pembertor and Phebe being above 14 years and Emily, Willoughby and Vashti, being under 14 years, the Court appointed Curtis Staddon as guardian.

Thomas and Mary's children were:

282. Phebe — m. 9-30-1834 James Thornton

283. Pemberton — m. Margaret

284. Emily (Emilia) — m. 11-15-1825 Robert Campble

120. HEZEHIAH PANCOAST, 43 Adin,

m. 1815 Rachel Boone

Hezekiah, one of the younger sons of Adin and Abigail (Boone) Pancoast, was born June 8, 1789. He was married March 26, 1815 to Rachel, daughter of Samuel and Elinor (Hughes) Boone who was born May 30, 1789.

Members of Friends, Hezekiah was 8 years of age when his mother transferred their membership from Exeter Mtg. in Berks Co. to Catawissa Friends Meeting.

Hezekiah and family were living in Catawissa Twp., Northumberland Co. in 1833 when he sold some land there. Later they went West to Ohio.

Rachel, known as 'Aunt Rachel' to all the young who had the honor of her acquaintance, was as exceptionally lovely old lady of rather small stature. They both lived many years in Dalton, Ohio.

Rachel died on Jan. 19, 1864 and Hezekiah on Jan. 20, 1866, both buried in the old part of the Dalton Cemetery in Sugar Creek Twp., Wayne Co., Ohio.

Fifty years ago a copy of their Bible Record was secured from a granddaughter, Mary McCarty of Ashland, listing their children.

122. ROBERT PANCOAST, 45 William

This Robert Pancoast is not proven either as the son of William and Sarah (Gover) Pancoast or as the father of the below mentioned children. But such is my belief. - Reasons -

Dec. 26, 1781 at the Sandy Spring Frierds Meeting, Mont. Co., Md., a Robert Pancoast was a witness at the wedding of Benj. and Eliz. (Boone) Hough. Other witnesses present included William, Sarah and Caleb Pancoast. Robert would have been quite young at the time and likely in the company of his parents.

May 1, 1799 at the Fairfax Frds. Mtg., Va., Robert was a witness at the wedding of John and Mary (Talbott) Pancoast. A brother?

Until this time, Robert had not been a Pancoast family name. Sarah (Gover) Pancoast was the daughter of Robert so it was natural for her to give that name to a son.

William Harding Pancoast is said to have named his son Robert after a brother.

The four children below are thought to be grandchildren of William and Sarah Pancoast. Are they children of Robert?

Descendants of Stacy below report that he was born in Loudoun Co., Va., and that he had three sisters as listed.

Probable children of Robert:

292. Mary m. Ayres

293. Elizabeth m. Demorest

294. Letitia m. ca 1816? John Harbough

295 Stacy b. 1796 m. 1822 Eliz. Hatton ref: Fairfax Mtg. records, Sandy springs Mtg. Marriages, West River Mtg. records, Md. Gen. Soc. Bull. 14-3-8.

123. STACEY PANCOAST, 45 William

m. 1788 Jane Perry

The parentage of Stacey Pancoast has not been proven. However, on the evidence available I have placed him as a son of William and Sarah (Gover) Pancoast of Frederick Co., Md. Stacey was born about 1767.

Stacey was married on Dec. 1, 1788 to Jane, daughter of Samuel and Sarah (Clagett) Perry, born June 16, 1772.

A deed dated Jan. 7, 1785, recorded Jan. 15, 1795, from George Noble and wife of Fred. Co., Va., to Stacey Pancoast of Montgomery Co., Md.

conveying 373 acres, known as Wet Work and Dry Work located on the East side of the Monocacy River in Fred. Co., Md.

A deed of gift dated March 6, 1796, from Jane Pancoast, widow of the late Stacey Pancoast, to Samuel Pancoast and Joseph Pancoast, "the love and affection which I bear to my two sons," giving and granting to Samuel Pancoast a negro named Bill and a negro girl named Meriam, and to Joseph Pancoast a negro girl named Nan and a negro boy named Jacob etc etc.

In Room 106 of the Land Office Bldg. at Annapolis is a record showing that Joseph and Samuel Pancoast of Frederick Co. received a patent for "Dry Work" in 1812.

These deeds show that Stacey had died prior to Mar. 6, 1796. His widow was married to Samuel Brayfield on Apr. 13, 1796 at the Evangelical Reformed Church, Frederick, Md. They had two children both of whom died as infants. Jane was widowed and married in 1808 her 3rd. husband, Isaac Porter. Jane's death occurred on May 28, 1809.

The children of Stacey and Jane Perry Pancoast were:

296. Samuel b. 3-17-1790 m. 1810 Louisa Metzgar

Sarah b. 7-30-1791 d. 11-25-1791

297. Joseph b. 10-31-1793 - Living in 1812

124. CALEB PANCOAST, 45 William

m. 1803 Mary Pope

Caleb Pancoast, born in 1772 in Md. or Va., is probably the son of William and Sarah (Gover) Pancoast. His name first appears in Md. as a witness to the marriage of Benjamin Hough and Elizabeth Boone at the Sandy Springs Friends Meeting in 1781. Caleb, nine years of age, would not have attended without his family. The other Pancoast signers were John, Adin, William, Abigail, Sarah, Mary and Robert. John, Adin and William were brothers and Uncles of the bride, a daughter of their sister Hannah. Robert and Caleb are known not to be sons of Adin or John. They were both probably sons of William and Sarah.

Caleb Pancoast and Mary Pope were married May 17, 1803 in Frederick Co., Md.

Caleb, a surveyor, laid out the twon of Pancoastville, Fred. Co., Md. on July 4, 1811. It is said that he lived on the N/E corner of Woodbine Rd. and the Frederick Pike. This town is now Lisbon of Howard Co.

Mary was a member of the Pipe Creek Friends Meeting, north of Lisbon. She moved to Salem, O. in 1825, to Frankford, Pa. in 1826 and to Phila. in 1829. In 1839 she moved to N. Y. City and died there Oct. 19, 1844, aged 69 years.

Caleb died Aug. 12, 1832, aged 60 years, according to Phila., N. D. Friends records.

Their children:

The Census records indicate six children. Samuel is known, John is probable. The other four have not been identified.

125. JOHN PANCOAST, [5] Wm.,

m. 1799 Mary Talbott

John, son of William and Sarah (Gover) Pancoast, was born Feb. 23, 1774 at Sandy Spring, Mont. Co., Md., and died July 31, 1856.

He was married under care of Fairfax Frcs. Mtg. May 1, 1799 to Mary Talbott, dau. of Joseph and Ann of Loudoun Co., Va., born Mar. 18, 1778 in Fred. Co., Md., and died April 22, 1833.

When John was married he was a member of Pipe Creek Mtg., Md. They were living near New Market, Fred. Co., when son Joseph was born.

John and Mary had eleven children.

127. WILLIAM HARDING PANCOAST

Questions - Who were the parents of William?

Judge John L. Pancoast of Okla. (a grandson) living at Fredericksburg, Va., in 1913 wrote that his father Jacob had told him many times that "we were related by marriage to the Boone and Lincoln families".

Frank Pancoast of Mich. (a grandson) said that his father was named Robert after a brother of his grandfather William H.

Next - to find a Robert Pancoast.

There was only one Robert Pancoast on record prior to 1800. That was the Robert who witnessed the marriage certificate in 1781 at the Sandy Spring Friends Meeting in Mont. Co., Md. of Elizabeth Boone and Benjamin Hough. Robert also witnessed in 1799, at Fairfax Mtg. Va., the marriage of John Pancoast and Mary Talbott.

In 1781 the Pancoasts present were John, Mary, Adin, Abigail, William, Sarah, Caleb and Robert. Neither John nor Adin had sons Caleb or Robert. William and Sarah (Gover) may have. Caleb was then about 9 years old and Robert may have been younger. At that age they would have been accompanied by their parents.

Also Sarah (Gover) Pancoast's father was named Robert.

If Robert was the son of William and Sarah (Gover) Pancoast, then Abigail (Boone) Pancoast, wife of Adin was his own Aunt and would explain the "related by marriage" claim.

As to the two weddings Robert witnessed that I mentioned earlier, John Pancoast would be his brother and Elizabeth Boone, daughter of Hannah (Pancoast) Boone, his first cousin.

If William Harding had a brother Robert, it must have been this Robert and then William H. was also a son of William and Sarah (Gover) Pancoast.

127. WILLIAM HARDING PANCOAST, 45 Wm.

m. 1815 Lydia B. Mohler

William Harding Pancoast is probably the son of William and Sarah (Gover) Pancoast. So far this had not been proven or disproven.

William was with a group of young men following Aaron Burr on his expedition into Louisianna. They came down the Greenbrier River to the Potomac and so to Harpers Ferry in 1805. They visited the Jacob Mohler plantation, relatives of Aaron Burr, and it was then that William first met Lydia Burnette Mohler.

If William was in his early twenties then he would have been born about 1780 to 1785.

In the 1880 Census record of his son Jacob, he said that he was born in Virginia and that his father was born in Maryland.

William returned later for Lydia and they were married at Harpers Ferry June 15, 1815 over the protests of Lydia's parents, Jacob and Jane (Rion) Mohler. Of their five children, Jacob is said to have been born on Savage Mt., Jefferson Co., Va., the next three in Loudoun Co., Va. and Robert, the youngest, in Knox Co., Ohio.

William had a Quaker background but he was a preacher for the 'New Light' faith, a split from the Baptists, when the family moved to Knox Co., O., about 1823.

William died of yellow fever in 1826/7 while on a trip to New Orleans.

Lydia Pancoast was married Nov. 31, 1835 in Knox Co., Ohio to Hugh Kirkpatrick.

The children of William H. and Lydia were:

310.	Jacob Manuel	b.	1818	m.	1843 Charity Gray

166. JOSEPH PANCOST, 74 Capt. Joseph

m. 1795 Susannah Cook

Joseph, the fourth son of Capt. Joseph and Unity (Shinn) Pancoast, was born Jan. 30, 1773, Burl. Co., New Jersey, and died Sept. 13, 1852, at Auburn, N. Y. He was nearly nine when his father died. Growing up in Burl. Co., N. J., Joseph with brother Solomon moved to New York City.

Joseph married Susannah Cook, born Nov. 10, 1777, from Morristown, N. J. in 1795. The first five children were born in New York by 1806, when Joseph decided to remove to the Genessee Country. He embarked all his family and movables on board a Hudson River schooner and arrived at the village of Schenactady on June 7th. Securing a large wagon with four horses they started for Sherwood's Corners in the town of Scipio, Cayuga Co., N. Y. Here he bought a small farm about ½ mile south of the old log Friends Meeting House and settled his family. Their family increased until there were 14 children: 5 sons and 9 daughters by 1822. Such families were an important factor in the rapid Western expansion of our country.

Joseph worked as a house carpenter and the farm was worked by the children.

Joseph's son Samuel learned to follow a plow as soon as he could reach the handles.

Mr. Jethro Wood, a neighbor and the inventor of iron plows, when ready to test the first one called Samuel to hold it. Samuel was always proud to have held the first cast iron plow in the world.

Susannah died March 10, 1839, and Joseph died in Auburn, N. Y. on Sept. 13, 1852.

Joseph left a will signed April 11, 1842 and probated Sept. 20, 1852. Both records on file in Surrogate office, Auburn.

Joseph changed his spelling of his name as told by his son Samuel. "Our father Joseph Pancost having thought best, for reasons not given to us his children, to drop the said 'a' from his name in 1806, at which time he removed, with his family, from New York City to Cayuga Co." Many of his descendants have reverted to the previous spelling.

Asa was a Private in Capt. Daniel Carmicks Detachment, at New Orleans, La. He was taken sick there, termed unfit for duty and discharged June 30, 1804.

He died Sept. 26, 1804, less than three months later. As far as is known Asa never married.

171. ELIZA PANCOAST, 76 Wm.,

m. 1809 John Rose

Elizabeth, the daughter of William Pancoast may be by either his first wife Mary or his second wife, Rebecca, sisters, and daughters of Thomas and Elizabeth Forman.

She was born by 1787, being mentioned in her grandmother Elizabeth Forman's will dated June 13, 1787 in New Hanover Twp., Burl. Co., N. J.

Eliza - as whe was known - was married on July 9, 1809 in Phila. to John Rose, son of John, born in France in 1782. The father an expert machinist, was born in London of English parents. When 21 he went to France as Supt. of Public Works, Dept. of la Orient. Here he married a French girl and lived until the French Revolution. He came to America and was at the Navy Yard, Washington until his death in 1826 - age 94.

The son John spent two years in the French Army, then came to America in 1804.

John, an engineer, and Eliza settled in Indiana where John died Oct. 30, 1839 at New Albany. Eliza died at New Orleans Apr. 25, 1871/2 and was buried at Lafayette Cem.

174. DAVID PANCOAST, 76 William

David, son of William and Rebecca (Forman) Pancoast was born about 1795, plus or minus a few years. It was in 1797 that his parents moved thier Friend's Certificate of Membership from the Phila. Pa. Meeting to the Alexandria, Va. Mtg. It is thought that David was born prior to that move, in either Pa. or N. J.

In the 1800 Census of D. C. is William Pencost listed with wife and five children, all under 10 years of age. William died in 1826 with his five children listed by name. His daughter Eliza who m. John Rose has known descendants living.

#103 Jonathan Pancoast, a second cousin of David's father William and also a bricklayer, lived in Alexandria several years before his move to Cincinnati, Ohio in 1806.

In the Vital Records of Washington, D. C. is found the death of one Joseph Rezin Pancoast, born Nov. 13, 1828 died Nov. 3, 1832, the second son of David and Mary Pancoast. I found no later record of David in Washington.

I did find a David listed in a Cincinrati Directory of 1840 as a blacksmith on 6th St. between Elm and Plum. He is not shown in the 1840 Census so may have boarded with some one.

In the 1850 Census is found David born 1797 in N. J. and wife Eliza born 1798 in N. J., listed as a merchant in Delhi Twp., Hamilton Co. In their 50's, they could have had children grown up and on their own.

After the death of David's father it seems probable that David left Washington and followed his cousins to Cincinnati. Further search there may disclose descendants as yet not located.

192. ELIZABETH PANCOAST, 81 Samuel

m. 1842 Malachi Horner

Elizabeth Allen, daughter of Samuel and Dorcas (Stretch) Pancoast, was born Oct. 1, 1796 in Elsinboro Twp., Salem Co., N. J.

Elizabeth A. Pancoast and Malachi Horner, both of Gloucester County, were married by the Friends Ceremony on June 13, 1842 by Samuel Pimm, Esquire, of Harrisonville.

Malachi Horner was a widower with two daughters, a farmer in Harrison Twp. near Harrisonville, born about 1795.

Elizabeth Horner died May 10, 1893, probably in Phila., Pa. where there were several of her family.

Of a special interest is a letter Elizabeth received during the Civil War from her niece, Elizabeth P. Hilliard. She was the daughter of Townsend and Hannah Pancoast Hilliard. She tells how the Rebels scared Philadelphia.

The letter follows

Phila. June 27th 1863

Dear Aunt

I have been trying this some time to write to thee but somehow or another dont make it out. The first piece of news I have to impart is that thy shoes were found safely ensconced in a band box, where I think thee must have put them as they were nicely wrapped up. We had a visit from Uncle Joseph on Seventh Day and from Lydia Pancoast on First Day. We hac quite an alarm here about the rebels I thought they were going to pource right on us.

Alfred Fisher, Charles Wessells and Bill Vaughn all marched off to war at that bidding. By this means they avoided the draft.

Will Snowden sent Han a box of magnolias from the dismal swamp. They looked as if they came from the dismal land for they were all dead by the time they arrived at our house. Aunt Susan Pancoast, Uncle Joseph and Lydia all have gone over to see Han and Annie. Aunt Susan stayed all night at Uncle Henrys. I am coming down to board a while with thee this summer if nothing happens, and I hope nothing will. If I want to bring a boarder what will thee take one for. It is one of our teachers, will thee take her if she wants to come. We have heard that Samuel Duells Wife is dead, is that so? We had a splendid ride yesterday, a gent'eman came out brought Han, Anna and Mary and we went to Fox Chase and all around. We had a very pleasant time. I never enjoyed a ride more I dont think. After we got home the bell rang and two gentlemen were there with a splendid team, a right new fall top. Dill spent the afternoon with us on Second Day. So thee sees we still have considerable company if we are out in the diggins. There is an awful state of excitement here, the bells have been ringing all day and all work is suspended. The rebels are said to be within four miles of Harrisburg and I am so near crazy that I scarcely know what I am about. Uncle Charlie goes to Harrisburg today. He had enlisted at least so I heard yesterday, that is what he told Will. Will wants to go but he is all we have and I hate to say the word go. A little word but at this present time full of meaning, when war is connected with it. Every man ought to go now for we are in terrible danger, and every women should encourge then this I think to be our duty tho a hard one. I feel like anything but teaching with the bells ringing the dolefuls in my ears. Han told me to tell thee that thy shawl is done, and she will bring it down with her if she is spared so to do. Perhaps she will come down on a shell if the rebels take Phila.

From thy affectionate niece

E. P. Hillard

P. S. Father was to see us this morning I was quite surprised to see him drop in. Is there much excitement down your way. I think all work ought to be suspended till the rebels are driven out of the state. I have the horrors I am afraid we will all be driven out of our homes.

With a touch of "gold fever" Charles sold his boat and headed West overland to California.

His diary, published as "A Quaker Forty-Niner" in 1930 is a very interesting account of his experiences.

Charles returned from his travels in April 1854 to settle in Phila. where he lived for over fifty years.

His return to the drug business was of short duration as he tried real estate and found it both interesting and rewarding.

271. DAVID PANCOAST

m. 1831 Hannah Schwank

This David Pancoast has not been connected definitely. Adin's son Asa had a son David. In Asa's death records at Sunbury is mentioned a son David and wife Rebecca Ward. (Co. Clerk E. V. Nicely in 1913).

Nothing further found of David & Rebecca.

However a David Pankus and Hannah Schwank were married at Danville, Pa. 2-16-1831 by Rev. DePui as shown in Notebook of "Danville Marriages" at the Columbia Co. Hist. Society.

As both of these Davids were in the same area and as the only known Pancoasts of that area were of Adin's line, if this David is not a son of Asa, he may be a nephew.

No further mention of David is found.

A record of Hannah (Schwank) Pankus was found, among Schwank records of her father Jacob 1791-1863 of Shamonkin Twp., son of Henry d. 1814, by George L. Swank, a grandson of Hannah's brother George of Elysburg in 1960.

This search started from a Charles Wm. Pancoast of Fanning, Mo. d. 1944 - born 1844 at Elysburg, Pa.

"Charles parents' names unknown, he was raised by his mother's mother, Mrs. Schwank".

Upon research around Danville, record was found of a William Pancoast 1837-1912 who was also raised by his mother's mother, Mrs. Schwank.

So at present we have record of but two children of David and Hannah, both sons, who married daughters of John and Sarah (Gibson) Riffell of Danville, Pa.

Doubtless there were other children in additon to

594. William b. 1837 - d. 1912 - mar. 1861 Sarah J. Riffel

595. Charles Wm. b. 3-25-1844 at Elysburg - d. 1944 mar. by 1866 Catherine Elizabeth Riffel

Their first child was born in Wooster, Ohio. The family then lived in Johnsville a few years, then moved to Ashland where Hezekiah established a drug store which he operated until his death, being both a pharmacist and a Medical doctor.

277. DIADAMIA PANCOAST, 118 William

m. 1830 Dr. Gladwin Chaffin

Diadamia, the daughter of William and Vashti (Cooper) Pancoast, was born Aug. 1, 1809 in Buffalo Valley, Union Co., Pa. and named for her father's sister.

Before she was 21 years old she was married to Dr. Gladwin Chaffin, son of Simon. Their granddaughter said "I remember hearing him tell the story of seeing Diadamia Pancoast for the first time. She was driving a team of very spirtied horses and managing them superbly. My grandfather gazed after her and vowed in his heart that that girl should be his wife -- and she was." On May 27, 1830, they were married. She died April 26, 1875 in Napoleon, Ohio. He died in Hutchinson, Kans., March 15, 1890.

Dr. Chaffin was most interesting. Born Oct. 10, 1804 in Union, Me., when seven years old he rode behind a four horse team for 1050 miles to Ohio, a two month trip. He studied medicine in Dover, Ohio and after his marriage he practiced at Fostoria and Van Buren, O., then Decatur, Ill. and finally Napoleon, O. His practice extended over 55 years. Of the old school, he wore a shawl instead of an overcoat, a soft felt hat, wore a wig and carried a cane. He was fond of making and receiving calls and had scores of friends. Of his wife in later years, he wrote, "I would live for her alone, and exult in the possession of a treasure so rare in every excellence, so beautiful in mind and body. She is a very pearl among women. They talk of love in youth; but I believe less in its worth than in the love we give each other now."

Their six children were:

Amanda Alice b. 10-13-1833 - m. 10-4-1855 Sampson H. Alberton, lived at Seymour, Iowa and had 8 children; Cecilia Irene, Mary Corinna, George G., Clara C., Garrett C. and Stanton & Kate, twins.

295. STACY PANCOAST, 122 Robert

m. 1822 Elizabeth Hatton

Stacy Pancoast was born Jan. 15, 1796 in Loudoun Co., Va., according to his descendants.

His parents have not been proven but he is thought to be a grandson of William and Sarah (Gover) Pancoast, and probably the son of Robert.

In 1913, F. W. Leach wrote "Stacey came to Phila, as a youth, then on to New York where he became a leading merchant. As a member of the State Artillery he attained the rank of Major". He was one of the Guard of Honor detailed to act as escort to Gen. Lafayette on his second visit to America in 1824. Stacy's sword, handed down from father to son, is a prized possession of his great great grandson Charles E. Pancoast III.

Stacy was married in 1822 in New York City to Elizabeth, daughter of James and Elizabeth (Lindsay) Hatton, born Jan. 7, 1803. Later they returned to Phila. where Stacy died July 15, 1836 and his widow on Dec. 31, 1842. Both are buried in St. Paul's Episcopal Church yard on Third St. north of Spruce in Phila.

296. SAMUEL PANCOAST, 123 Stacy

m. 1810 Louisa Metzger

Samuel, son of Stacy and Jane (Perry) Pancoast, was born March 17, 1790, in Frederick Co., Md. where his parents were living. He was less than five when his father died.

When Samuel's mother remarried, his step-father, Samuel Brayfield, was named as guardian of Samuel and his brother Joseph.

Samuel inherited a plantation from his father in Frederick Co., Md. He married Louisa Metzger, their Fred. Co. license being dated Sept. 10, 1810.

The 1820 Census of Fred. Co. shows the family with four children under 10 yrs.

Samuel's will, dated Oct. 7, 1820 was proven Nov. 7 of that year. In it he names his four children.

Samuel's widow married again on Jan. 26, 1824, Patrick O'Neil by whom she had two more children, Howard D. and Mary Rose O'Neil.

The children of Samuel and Louisa Pancoast:

300. WILLIAM G. PANCOAST, 124 Caleb

m. 1834 Lydia Clark

I do not have proof that this William is the son of Caleb and Mary (Pope) Pancoast, but after much research I have come to that conclusion. If so he was born in either Frederick Co., Md. or across the Potomac in Loudoun Co., Va., between 1805 and 1810, their oldest son.

William G. Pancoast and Lydia Clark of the Northern Liberties of Phila. Pa. were married Sept. 16, 1834 by Rev. Thomas Kitts of a Baptist Church in Northern Liberties.

Lydia Pancoast was born about 1816 as she is recorded as of 68 years of age at death June 7, 1884. It is possible that she was the widow Clark, born Bowker.

Lydia is buried in Trinty Church Cemetery at 153rd and Riverside Drive, New York. She had bought plot #60 Eastern Division, on Nov. 27, 1863 and moved the bodies of Charles and Sarah I. Pancoast there a year later, Nov. 29, 1864. William B., John C. and Charles buried there are thought to be her sons.

Two brothers, thought to be great grandsons of this William and Lydia, were located but could not agree on the name of their grandfather. Francis X. thought it was John and his brother William thought it was William.

They did agree that their grandfather was one of 5 (or 6) brothers who served in the Civil War. However, the George they remembered who lost his arm, was, I believe a cousin. He was a son of Samuel and Rachel and orphaned as a boy. He was taken to New York to grow up in his Uncle's family.

Below are listed three probable sons of Lydia who are buried in her family plot. So far I have no leads on her other children. They reportedly lived in Chelsea Village.

Probable children:

618. William B. d. 6-29-1875 - 37 yrs.

619. John C. d. 3-25-1871 - 29 yrs.

620. Charles d. 2-21-1863. Killed in Civil War. It is reported that several horses were killed under him before he met his death.

301. SAMUEL P. PANCOAST, 124 Caleb

m. Rachel Vernoy

As reported by Gilbert Pancoast Bogert of Chicago, a great grandson of Samuel and Rachel --

"Samuel Poultney Pancoast, son of Caleb and Mary Pancoast, was born in Loudoun Co., Va. about 1812. He later married Rachel Ann Vernoy also of Loudoun County. They both died when their son George W., born in 1841, was a small boy. George was sent to New York City to live and grow up with relatives." "The son George W. served in the Civil War where he lost his left arm. He worked for years with the Astor Trust Co. of New York as cashier."

Only known child of Sam'l. and Rachel was:

621. George W. b. 4-17-1841 m. Sarah Terwilliger.

ref: Gilbert P. Bogert.

Biographical and Genealogical History of city of Newark and Essex County, N. J., 1898, Vol. II page 430.
In the biography of George W. Pancoast (then living) it states that his father Samuel P., son of Caleb, was born in Waterford, Vt. As Caleb is known to have lived in Maryland and Virginia, it is much more likely that Samuel was born in Waterford, Virginia. They also give Rachel as the daughter of Cornelius Vernoory, born in Ulster, N. Y.

302. JOHN PANCOAST, 124 Caleb

m. 1839 Marie Winchester

John K. probably the son of Caleb and Mary (Pope) Pancoast, was born about 1815 at Pancoastville, Fred. Co. (now Lisbon, Howard Co.) Md.

He was married in Balt., Md. by Rev. Kepler June 25, 1839 to Marie Louisa Winchester, born 1823 in Md.

John is found listed in several Balt. directories as a cabinet maker. In the 1850 Fed. Census he lived in the 15th Ward of Balt. and in the 17th, ten years later.

The census record lists nine children - there are thought to have been others not living at home. Descendants say there were also George, Ann Gertrude and Alverta.

Probable children of John and Marie Pancoast:
Births are according to Census Record.

m. 1820 Samuel Cowman

Anna, daughter of John and Mary (Talbott) Pancoast, was born June 10, 1803 in Maryland.

She was married May 24, 1820 to Samuel Snowden, son of Joseph and Mary (Snowden) Cowman, born Feb. 9, 1794 in Ann Arundel County, Maryland.

They lived in the 14th Ward of Baltimore where they owned a grocery business. Also a boarding house it seems - in the 1850 Census there were 19 listed in the family which included Ann's father, John Pancoast, also several clerks.

Samuel Cowman died April 7, 1871 and his widow June 11, 1887 when 84 years of age. Anna was a consistent member of the Baltimore Monthly Meeting of Friends and deeply interested in all Friendly affairs. At the time of her death, her granddaughter, Ella Cowman wrote "Her life was like the fragrance of some sweet flower, full of a quiet beauty that made all who knew her almost reverent in their admiration. Meek, gentle, kind, patient under affliction, tenderly forgiving toward all offenders, she walked daily with God, a beautiful example of a life lived with Christ."

Samuel and Anna's children were:

352. SETH PANCOAST, 145 Stephen

m. 1st. Sarah Osborn

Seth, the only son of Stephen and Ann (Stroud) Pancoast was born July 25, 1823 in Darby, Pa. He was about fifteen years of age when his father sold his paper mills at Darby and the family moved into Philadelphia.

Seth went to the University of Penna. where he was graduated from their Medical School in 1852.

His first teaching position was as Professor of Anatomy at the Philadelphia Female College in 1853. He taught in the Pennsylvania Medical College from 1854 to 1859 when he was compelled to resign due to the growth of his private practice.

Dr. Pancoast's specialty however was in the occult sciences. In 1877 he wrote the "Cabala", the first book on that subject in the English language. He also wrote a book on Theosophy, the preparation of which required twenty years of research thru ancient works in European libraries. Dr. Pancoast had the finest private collection of books on the occult sciences in the United States. He also wrote and published several medical books.

Dr. Pancoast was a man of many interests. One of these was his search for sunken treasure. It seems that a British privateer, the DeBraak, sank during a storm off Cape Henlopen, Del. on May 25, 1798. The DeBraak was loaded with chests of gold, silver and diamonds that had been taken from two Spanish galleons captured by the DeBraak and her crew.

The wreck had been the subject of several salvage attempts. The third try occurred in 1877 when the International Submarine Co. was formed and spent $30,000 in a fruitless attempt to recover the treasure.

When they failed, Dr. Seth started to make plans and to study all known charts and records of the wreck and it's locality. He headed up an expedition to recover the treasure and in 1887 they were ready. However after four years of effort the ocean still claimed the treasure, securely held by just such storms as had claimed the DeBraak and her cargo some ninety odd years before.

Dr. Seth Pancoast was married three times with children by each wife. He married first Jan. 6, 1853 Sarah S. Osborn, daughter of Peter and Rebecca of Phila., Pa., born June 18, 1831 and died Jan. 3, 1868. He married second Jan. 14, 1869, Susan G. Osborn sister of Sarah, born Oct. 7, 1835 who died Dec. 16, 1876. His third marriage on Jan. 14, 1879 was to Carrie Almena Fermald, born Mar. 9, 1857, daughter of Nathaniel and Caroline of Phila., Pa.

Seth, who was remembered as a kindly, rotund man, died in Philadelphia Dec. 16, 1889 at 66 years of age.

359. DR. JOSEPH PANCOAST, 147 John

m. 1829 Rebecca Abbott

Joseph, the first son and fourth child of John and Ann (Abbott) Pancoast, was born on Nov. 23, 1805 in Springfield Twp., Burl. Co., N. J.

Dr. Joseph graduated from the Medical School of the University of Pa. in 1828 and at once started to practice medicine in Phila., specializing in anatomy and surgery.

The next year Joseph was married at the Arch St. Friends Mtg. on July 2, 1829 to Rebecca, daughter of Timothy and Rebecca (Howard) Abbott, born Aug. 31, 1810 in Phila.

In 1834 Dr. Pancoast was chosen physician to the Phila. Hospital; soon became physician-in=chief to the Childrens Hospital and from 1838 to 1845 was one of the visiting surgeons to the same hospital. From 1854 to 1864 he was a member of the medical staff of the Phila Hospital.

In 1838 he was elected Professor of Surgery at Jefferson Medical College and three years later was transferred to the chair of Anatomy, which he held many years, resigning in 1874. He had been a leading physician of Jefferson for 36 years. He was a physician, author, practitioner, student and teacher.

Dr. Pancoast was a Fellow of the College of Physicians and a member of the American Medical Assoc., the American Philosophical Society, etc. He made many contributions to the professional periodicals of the day; the American Journal of the Medical Sciences, the American Medical Intelligencer, the Medical Examiner, etc. He published likewise many monographs upon technical subjects, and translated, edited and revised various productions of other scientific writers. His greatest work was his "Treatise on Operative Surgery, Including Descriptions of all the New Operations" first printed in 1844 later revised in 1852.

Dr. Pancoast did much pioneer work in surgery developing and perfecting many new operations. He was the originator of an operation for soft cataract with a fine needle, bent near the point. He devised many new operations in plastic surgery, among them the formation of a nose; and of a substitute for the eyebrow by using a flap from the scalp.

He has restored the voice by dividing the muscles of the soft palate that have been contracted by ulceration. He was so celebrated that Sir William Ferguson, then the head of English surgery, referred to him the daughter of Lord Chancellor Lyndhurst for a plastic operation.

Dr. Chalmers DaCosta in speaking of Dr. Pancoast said "Pancoast, the dexterous, the dramatic, with a hand as steady as a rock, but as light as a floating perfume; with a heart that was a stranger to fear and with an eye as quick as a flashing sunbeam".

When Dr. Joseph Pancoast resigned at Jefferson in 1874, he was succeeded by his son Dr. William Henry Pancoast.

Dr. Joseph died in Phila. Mar. 7, 1882 and his widow died in Baltimore June 7, 1883. Both were buried at Laurel Hill Cem., Phila.

364. ENOCH PANCOAST, 150 Thomas

m. 1815 Jerusah Coleman

The parentage of Enoch has not been proven. At this time all indications point to Thomas Pancoast of Bordentown, N.J. Thomas #150, was son of #64 John, also of Bordentown.

The family Bible record of Enoch has been found and shows that Enoch was born on May 27, 1789. He was married on May 6, 1815 to Jerusah, born on Nov. 27, 1795, daughter of Mahlon and Mary (Bound) Coleman.

Mahlon Coleman is mentioned in his father's will of 1802 in Nottingham Twp., Burlington Co., N. J. The family Bible record of Mahlon and Mary (Bound) Coleman has been found.

Enoch's will, dated Dec. 8, 1866 and probated on Sept. 4, 1867 in Columbia Twp., Hamilton Co., Ohio, shows when and where he died. The grandchildren remember Grandpa Pancoast dying first and Grandma shortly after. Enoch mentions, in his will, the 92 3/4 a. farm that they now reside on. 365. AMBROSE PANCOAST, 150 Thomas

m. 1811 Rebecca Carrison

Ambrose Pancoast was born on Oct. 11, 1791 probably in Bordentown, N. J. As a boy he lived on Farnsworth Ave. just north of where the Bank is now located. This is according to a grandson of William Pancoast, a known brother of Ambrose.

Definite proof of their parentage has not been discovered.

Ambrose's marriage took place on Dec. 17, 1811 at the Cumberland M.E. Church located at Cumberland Furnace, to Rebecca Garrison, born March 30, 1795. He was 20 and she was 16 years of age at the time. Rebecca was the daughter of David and Catharine (Keeper) Garrison who had been married on Nov. 17, 1778 at the Pittsgrove Baptist Church in Salem County. Rebecca's parents are buried in the yard of the old Deerfield Presbyterian Church, Cumb. Co., where their graves were marked by Rebecca with suitable stones.

Ambrose enlisted on July 15, 1813 for a six month term in the War of 1812 against Great Britain, in Capt. John Cades Detachment of Infantry, Major William Potters Detach, of N.J. Militia. He was discharged on Aug. 1, 1813.

At the time that Ambrose was married it has not been determined if he was working at the Cumberland Furnace or at the saw and grist mill at that location.

It seems that Eli Budd of Burl. Co. became a Methodist and, removing to Maurice River, he bought the property on the upper part of the Manumuskin Creek where he put up a forge for the manufacture of iron. His son Wesley built a blast furnace known as Cumberland Furnace about 1810. They failed in 1818, the furnace changed hands several times until 1840 when it was abandoned and soon went to ruin.

A saw and grist mill were maintained there for many years, the grist mill ending about the same time as the furnace and the saw mill operating past the 1880's to the south of this area there is a branch of the Muskee Creek named the Pancoast branch, about three miles or so south of Cumberland Furnace and two miles east of Port Elizabeth. There was a mill here at one time and it may have been operated by Ambrose, explaining the name of the stream.

However, before many years, Ambrose moved north into the unsettled woods of Atlantic County, about midway between Weymouth and Landisville, on Deep Run, a branch of the Great Egg Harbor River above Mays Landing.

Here Ambrose settled, built a dam and mill and soon a settlement developed known as Pancoastville, later on as Pancoast Mills. About three miles east of the mills and about one mile from Landisville is the Friendship M.E. Church where Aambrose, Rebecca, and many of their descendants lie buried. Today there are no Pancoast's living in the cincinity and no sign of the mills.

The obituary of Ambrose, as found in the Trenton Reformer and Temperance Advocate of March 31, 1855 is as follows: "Died March 6, Ambrose Pancoast of Atlantic County in his 53rd year. A consistent member of the Methodist Episcopal Church and a strong advocate of temperance." His widow Rebecca passed away Feb. 6, 1873, nearly 78 years of age.

News Item: May 12th 1855. "Three schooners belonging to the estate of Ambrose Pancoast, dec'd. were sold at auction in Schetterville (near Millville) today. The "R. Briffith Porter" to the Captain, $6800; The "A. Pancoast" to Enoch Pancoast, $3750; The "Rebecca and Harriet" to Runyon of New York, $2200.

396. JOSIAH PANCOAST, 163 Benj.

m. 2nd. Sarah

Josiah Hillman, son of Benjamin and Amy (Vaughn) Pancoast, was born March 31, 1805 and died Feb. 14, 1839 as per his fathers Bible.

He was named for his father's Uncle, Josiah Hillman, who had been quite active in the Rev. War.

Josiah, who married before he came of age, was soon left a widower with little children. He was married a second time when 25 years old to Sarah _____.

As he was under 34 years of age at death and left no will, his family has been hard to trace.

Some of his sons have been identified. A grandson in a letter dated 1902 states that his father Solomon was a son of Josiah. He also said that Benjamin of Camden was a half brother to Solomon and therefore also a son of Josiah. The marriage records of both George R. and Ellis place them as sons of Josiah. A Josiah that was born in 1838 probably is another son. No daughters have as yet been identified.

Children of Josiah and 1st. wife:

753. George R. b. 1825 m. 1849 Mary Lamb

754. Solomon b. 6-11-1826 m. Lydia H. Pullen

398. WALTER PANCOAST, 154 Solomon

m. Rebecca Baxby

Walter, son of Solomon and Mary (haviland) Pancoast was born March 21, 1799 in New York City.

His father died April 3, 1801 when Walter was only two years old and his younger brother Solomon only 11 months of age. Both boys were recorded as members of the New York Monthly Meeting of Friends until they came of age.

Walter was disowned for joining another Church Oct. 4, 1820.

From this point on Walter has been hard to identify and nothing further is proven.

However it is thought that the Walter Pancoast of New Bedford, Mass. in 1833 is the above #398 Walter.

Walter and Rebecca (Baxby) Pancoast of New Bedford had a son Benjamin. There may have been other children.

Their son:

760. Benjamin F. b. May 7, 1833 m. 1860 Asenath Hutchinson

The notice of his marriage to Eliza Gardner was printed in the "Trenton Emporium" issue of March 9, 1822. The ceremony was not with the approval of the New York Friends Meeting and Solomon was dismissed by them on April 3, 1822.

Solomon was employed by a furniture factory in Newark as varnisher and finisher.

Eliza, born Oct. 1, 1797 in New York, died in Newark Nov. 18, 1840.

402. JOSEPH PANCOAST, 165 Samuel

Joseph, son of Samuel and Esther (kinsey) Pancoast, was born Nov. 13, 1825. Esther was the daughter of Benjamin and Martha Kinsey.

Samuel and Esther were members of the Frankford Mo. Mtg. of Friends where their marriage was reported Feb. 20, 1824 and when Samuel died July 8, 1827.

Joseph was less than 20 months of age at his father's death. He was twelve years old when his mother died in Chester Township, Burlington Co., N. J. in January, 1837 at the home of her brother Edmund Kinsey.

I have been unable to trace Joseph further. He had two half sisters, Mary and Elizabeth, who were much older. Elizabeth had married by 1823 Dr. Samuel Atkinson. They may have taken Joseph to raise and/or apprenticed him to learn a trade in Pa.

Joseph also had several relatives in Burlington Co., N. J. and others who had gone West. If he married and left descendants, I have not as yet located them.

Samuel, son of Joseph and Susannah (Cook) Pancoast, was born in New York City March 29, 1801. His parents moved in 1806 to Scipio, Cayuga County, N. Y., where they bought a small farm.

The father worked as a house carpenter and his children helped farm, the boys following a plow as soon as they could reach the handles. Mr. Jethro Wood, a neighbor and the inventor of iron plows, when ready to test the first one called Samuel to hold it. Samuel was always proud to have held the first cast iron plow in the world.

Samuel, being the 3rd. child of 14, was easily spared from home. When grown, he went to Vermont to make wood plows. While there, he married Sally H. Smith, dau. of Oliver and Eunice Smith. In Oct. of 1830, with his wife and two baby daughters, he started west in a covered wagon, settling in Lake Co., Ohio.

In 1833 his wife died leaving three little girls and the next year he married the widow Polly Parmly Turney, dau. of Eleazer and Hannah Parmly. Buying a timbered tract which he cleared, he fulfilled a contract to deliver timber for a R. R. from Painesville to Fairport. He had also put up buildings for his family.

In 1838 he sold a horse and bought a set of dental instruments plus a quart can full of human teeth taken from young British soldiers who fell at the Victory of Jan. 8, 1812 at New Orleans. Going down river to Shelbyville, Ky., he opened a dental office and soon had plenty of work. Three years later, he moved to Charleston, S. C., working there and at Savannah, Ga., for several years and coming home for a few weeks every summer to visit his family.

While home in 1847, his second wife died, leaving him with four daughters to care for. On Dec. 31, 1848 he married Mary Ann Gammon of Savannah, and lived there until 1856, when he retired and moved to his farm in Ohio. In June of 1861 his wife died leaving him with three sons to care for.

That year he opened a dry goods store in Painesville and June of the next year he married Sarah Baldwin. After 20 years with a retail store, he retired when past 81 years of age. He died May 5, 1886 at the age of 86. His widow Sarah, born Aug. 8, 1837, died Aug. 9, 1906.

When it was probated Peter Hodson was named as the guardian of the heirs of Hannah, deceased. Peter signed as Peter Hodson. His name is spelled several different ways in other places, even Hodgerson.

Hiram, son of Jospeh and Susannah (Cook) Pancost, was born on Nov. 7, 1808 at Scipio, Cayuga Co., N. Y., where he grew up on a farm.

He was married in Venice on June 12, 1834 to Caroline, daughter of Thomas and Abigail (Sloat) Cannon of Venice, Cayuga Co. by Rev. E. W. Bateman. Thomas Cannon, who was a Rev. War Veteran, died Dec. 6, 1839.

Hiram and Caroline went to Ohio and located on a farm at Hartland, Huron Co. Here Caroline died after the birth of her fifth child, Edgar Ben. in 1845.

Caroline (Cannon) Pancost was quite a person. Among other activities she spun flax and wove fine linens. A granddaughter of hers, Edna Pancost Mowery (daugher of Edgar Ben), had a fine linen towel that Caroline had made. She wove it with a design all over like the ends of fingers pressed down. It was hemmed across the top with a loop to hang it by and was fringed at the bottom. She had also embroidered her name across it.

Before Edna Mowery's death in 1965 she had given the towel to her niece Dorthy Pancost Burkhardt, wife of Calvin of Elkhart, Ind.

Hiram married as his second wife, Hulda Bugby (Baigby), born in 1825. In the 1850 Census record of the family in Hartland is included three year old James Baigby. Perhaps Hulda's son by a previous marriage.

The family moved West to a farm south of Swanton in Fulton Co. Hulda's death date has not been determined. She was buried at Whitehouse because at the time the road to Swanton was impassable with spring mud.

Hiram married as his third wife, Mary A. Bassett, born 1838 in N. Y. She was 30 years his junior and presented him with two more children before his death Sept. 4, 1879. He was buried at Swanton.

After the death of Hiram, his widow Mary Ann Pancost, was married Sept. 6, 1883 to Elijah Fairchilds. Mary Ann had sold (while a widow) 40 acres for $670.00 located in Swan Creek Twp., Fulton Co. It was known as the South ½ of East ½ of the NW ¼ of Section 24, Town 7, North of Range 8 East. Deeds 42-571 of Fulton Co., Wauseon, Ohio.

Joel Butler, son of Israel and Mary (Lindsey) Pancoast, was born on June 20, 1818, before the family settled at Elizabeth, Pa.

In 1832, when only 14 urs. of age, Joel signed up as a cabin boy on a river steamer from Cincinnati to New Orleans. On this trip he bought a pair of skates in New Orleans that were a prized possession of a grandson, George Bond in 1949.

Joel married Eliza S. Meyers, born July 19, 1829 of Bliney Hazzard Island near Racine, O.

Joel worked many years as a River Pilot with his home at Newport, Ky. During the Civil War he spent nine months on a steamer tied up at Vicksburg issuing rations to the soldiers. A Bowie knife used in the War is also prized by George Bond.

When Joel retired he bought a small river edge apple farm of thirty acres near St. Paul, Ky.

Joel's death occurred in 1911 when 93 years old, from pneumonia, contacted when he was forced to flee unclothed in the night from his burning home.

His wife had died on Oct. 19, 1908 and both are buried in Evergreen Cemetery on a hillside south of St. Paul.

529. ELISHA PANCOAST, 223 Israel

m. Mildred

Elisha Pancoast, son of Israel and Mary (Lindsey) Pancoast, was born May 5, 1823.

He is thought to be the 'E. L. Pancoast' who made rifles. From "American Gun Makers" by Gluchman & Satterlee, 1953.

"E. L. Pancoast, Greensboro, Green Co., later of Elizabeth, Allegheny Co., Pa. Trained with Barney Engle at Greensboro in the early 1870's. Made gain-twist rifles. Maker of a fine, curly maple, full stock .33 caliber percussion rifle with lock marked G. G. Julcher."

From "The Pennsylvania-Kentucky Rifle" by Henry S. Kauffman. On plate 259 is shown a rifle with this caption.
"Rifle with percussion lock, full stock of curly maple, brass mountings, silver inlays, set triggers, octagonal barrel 41½ inches long with E. L. Pancoast on the top facet of the barrel." "Pancoast, Elizabeth 1861".

In a note from William R. Pancoast of Elizabeth in Dec. 1971 he says that he has one, 'a beauty' that was left to him by Stump Rhodes, an old riverman.

In 1880 Elisha, his son Thomas and two grandsons were living together in Elizabeth. I have no further record on Elisha or his wife, Mildred.

531. SAMUEL PANCOAST, 223 Israel

m. Dorcas Carroll

Samuel, born about 1826, was a son of Israel and Mary Pancoast of Elizabeth, Pa. He was listed in the 1850 and 1860 Census as a ship carpenter. There was a large demand for river boats from the settlers going West and nearly all of Israels sons and grandsons found work along the river.

Samuel married Dorcas Carroll, born about 1827. They had at least six children when the death of Dorcas left them without a mother.

Samuel married a second wife but I am not sure of her name. One granddaughter thought that it may have been Sarah Frances ---- but not sure.

After the death of Dorcas - her son Charles was raised by grandmother Dorcas Carroll. After his marriage, his grandmother lived with them until her death nine years later.

532. JAMES S. PANCOAST, 223 Israel

James S., son of Israel and Mary (Lindsey) Pancoast, was born March 27, 1831, as shown in his father's Bible record.

Little has been learned about James. It is known that he was a skiff builder of Elizabeth, Pa., the same as several of Israel's family.

I find no record of wife or children but he may have married.

James lived at St. Paul, Ky., with his brother Joel for a few years prior to Joel's death in 1911.

James, at that time 80 years of age, went to spend his remaining years living with the family of James Mahaffey of Racine, Ohio, a relative, and most likely a nephew. James' oldest sister Mary Ann had married a Mahaffey.

Stewart Pancoast was born about 1830 according to Census records.

In the 1850 Elizabeth Twp., Alleghany Co., Pa. Census, Stewart, 20 yrs. old and a ship carpenter is listed in the family of Mary Pancoast, widow of Israel.

He may have been their son but his birth is not listed in the Israel Bible record.

Stewart is said to have married Sarah Duff. They had no children.

Nothing further has been learned of this couple.

535. JOHN B. PANCOAST

m. Sarah J.

John B. Pancoast, perhaps a son of Israel and Mary (Lindsey) Pancoast, was born in 1832.

He is not listed in the Israel Bible record.

He is shown in the 1860 Census with a wife Sarah J., born about 1835. He was a ship carpenter living in Elizabeth Twp., Alleghany Co. near William Pancoast, the oldest son of Israel.

There was another John B. Pancoast of Elizabeth, twenty years younger, the son of Samuel and Dorcas. As a result there is some confusion about their recrods.

I have found no record of any children.

535 B. DAVID S. PANCOST, 225

m. 1857 Jane Fink

David S. Pancost was born in Ohio Nov. 12, 1836, one of four children of Susannah Pancost. The name of his father, who died in 1842, has not been discovered. David had a brother Simeon and they are thought to be grandsons of Simeon and Mary (White) Pancoast. His father may be the Joseph Pancoast, found in 1840 in Cincinnati with two sons of the right age.

In 1850 David, 14, was living with David McDaniel, a farmer, in Knox Co. Ohio.

When David was 21 years of age he was married on Nov. 19, 1857 to Elizabeth Jane Fink, born July 24, 1834. They lived several years in Richland Co., O., then moved from Darlington to a 32 acre farm in Knox Co. David also worked as a carpenter.

David died July 3, 1907 and his widow Jane on July 14, 1914, both buried in the Owl Creek Church of the Brethern Cemetery at Ankney-town.

Granddaughter Marie Whitney reports "they were faithful members of the Disciple Church at Palmyra about one mile from their home and their day was ruined if they could not attend a Church service."

David and Jane had nine children:

Jonathan, the son of Shreve and Polly Pancoast, was born Jan. 3, 1821, at Pancoastburg, Fayette Co., Ohio, and died Sept. 16, 1906, at the home of his son, Cicero, at Rensselaer, Ind. He attended college at Delaware, Ohio. He farmed and worked in his father's two mills, a grist mill and a saw mill, on Deer Creek. Loving to sing, he led the old fashioned singing school; and when he was seventy-five, he still could sing humns and folk songs to a rapt audience of his grandchildren.

In 1854, when he was 33 years old, he married Sarah Ann Yoeman, age 22, daughter of Alva and Elizabeth Yoeman. They went, with a team to a covered wagon, to Indiana to make their home on land that had been left to Sarah by her parents. Sarah died in Nov. of 1858 from milk sickness caused by eating the beef of an animal poisoned by white snake root, a common cause of death at that tine. Jonathan, left with two little children, sold his household goods, rented the farm, and returned to Ohio where his children were raised by his nother and sister Adaline.

During the Civil War, he bought up mules for the Army, driving them overland to New York City for delivery. In 1869 he returned to his farm in Indiana, taking along his young son Cicero. Sometime later he took a subcontract to build a section of railroad between Monon and Monticello, Ind. When the general contractor failed, Jonathan sold his farm to pay off his men. This left him penniless when around fifty years old. However, he rented his old farm from the new owners and continued to farm.

When his son married and bought a farm, Jonathan made his home with them until he died on Sept. 16, 1906, at 85 years of age. He was of solid build, five foot ten, had blue eyes and auburn hair, weighted about 180 pounds, and he could swing a scythe or grain cradle all day without tiring.

Lewis married by 1857 Charity W., daughter of Charles and Patience (Chew) Down, of Downstown, born Jan. 9, 1837.

719. JOSEPH PANCOAST, 367

m. by 1840 Isabelle Hartzoge

The parentage of Joseph has not been determined.

This Joseph, a shoemaker, came from Phila., and settled at Millville where he found work in the glass house. It is said that he came from the vicinity of Second and Queen Sts., that he had a sister Martha Madison living in that area with a family of children.

Joseph's Bible shows nine children born from 1841 to 1859 inclusive. After his death his widow married again Dec. 4, 1867, to John H. Ottinger.

The sons all took jobs in the glass house as soon as they were old enough.

The children of Joseph and Isabelle were:

This Joseph is reported to have been a nephew of Ambrose Pancoast by Samuel W., a grandson of Ambrose, as told to John Benj. Pancoast, son of Joseph, and reported to me by Morris, son of John Benj. Therefore, I have placed Joseph as the son of #367, a brother of #365 Ambrose, until further evidence is found. Joseph is said to have had such a strong accent when he came to Millville, he could hardly be understood.

729. JOSEPH PANCOAST, 390 David

m. by 1850 Elizabeth Deaves

Joseph H. oldest son of David and Sarah (Stevenson) Pancoast was born Nov. 30, 1815 in Burlington Co., N. J.

In the 1850 Census of Kensington, Philadelphia, Pa., in the family of William Deaves, we find listed Joseph Pancoast, ship carpenter and his wife Elizabeth Pancoast. They were probably just married. No date has been found. Elizabeth, born about 1830-31 was the daughter of William, a blacksmith of Kensington, and Elizabeth Deaves.

In the 1860 Census of Wrightstown, Burl. Co., N. J. is found the family with their first three daughters. Shortly afterward they moved over to Frankford, Pa.

The 1880 Census shows the family on Orchard St. Elizabeth, Josephine and Rachel had married and were not living at home. Shown in the family group were two grandsons, Joseph, four years, and Oliver, two years old.

The children were born in Frankford, except Josephine who was born near Wrightstown, Burl. Co., N. J.

731. WILLIAM PANCOAST, 390 David

m. 1840 Harriet Powell

William, son of David and Sarah (Stevenson) Pancoast, of Springfield Twp., Burl. Co., N. J. was born Nov. 15, 1820 as per David's Bible record.

This is probably the William of Springfield who was married Apr. 16, 1840 to Harriet Powell, as per the N. J. Gazette of Apr. 27, 1840. Harriet is thought to be the daughter of James and Mary Powell.

The 1850 Census shows William and Hariet with five children, one of whom, James, seven years old, is also listed with James and Mary Powell of Pemberton Twp. Two other daughters, Helen and Fannie, are listed in the N. J. Birth Records.

The 1860 Census shows Wm. living in the family of James Powell (his father-in-law?).

His daughter, Fannie, four yrs. old, is with Alfred and Jane Brinley. Ida Pancoast, eight years, and William Pancoast five years, living with John Pippit, may be other children of Willian, all found in Pemberton Twp., Burl. Co., N. J.

William died Dec. 24, 1871 as shown in his father's Bible Record. It would seem that Harriet had died prior to the 1860 Census.

Probable children of William and Harriet Pancoast:

735. DAVID PANCOAST, 390 David

m. Cecilia

David, the son of David and Sarah (Stephenson) Pancoast was born Aug. 17, 1833 in Burlington Co.

The family were Quakers and members of the Arneys Mount Meeting where David lies buried next to his mother. David, however, did not conform to the Quaker ideas about bearing arms. He enlisted at Beverly on Sept. 13, 1862 for nine months serving as a Wagoner. On or about Feb. 14, 1863, while serving as Brigade Teamster, he was driving a team of young mules when the mules started to run away. He was thrown by one of the mules which then fell on him, seriously injuring his left leg. That leg bothered him all the rest of his life. He received his discharge from Co.
